This week on the LPGA Tour:
The ANNIKA driven by Gainbridge at Pelican Golf Club

Aon Risk Reward Challenge Update

The 14th at Pelican GC is a long, straight par five with bunkers protecting landing areas both on the fairway and near the green. Only the longest players in the field will be able to go for the green in two: in 2022, just 7.8% made that decision. Those who did gained more than half-a-stroke on the field. Nelly Korda took advantage of her prowess off the tee here last year, going for the green in two of three rounds on her way to victory.

Contender Update

The final week of the Aon Risk Reward Challenge season on the LPGA Tour is here and Angel Yin is one week closer to earning the Aon Trophy and $1 Million prize. While Angel is not in the field this week, she will keep a close eye on the results of her closest competitor, Atthaya Thitikul. Atthaya needs 2 eagles on the 14th hole this week in order to overtake Angel as the season’s top decision-maker. Tune into CBS coverage throughout the event to follow the action.

What is the Aon Risk Reward Challenge?
The Aon Risk Reward Challenge is a season-long competition on the PGA TOUR and LPGA Tour testing the abilities of the world’s best players to make thoughtful, strategic decisions on the most challenging holes (“Aon Risk Reward Challenge holes”) throughout the year.

At the end of the regular season, the most consistent player across each tour, with the lowest average score under par, on the Aon Risk Reward Challenge holes captures the $1 million prize.

Aon is committed to a diverse workforce and an inclusive culture where everyone can thrive, ensuring delivery of the best innovative solutions for clients. As such, providing equal prize money to both the PGA TOUR and LPGA Tour aligns with Aon’s core values and brand.

Aon’s Risk Reward Challenge Scoring
One hole is selected at each tournament as the designated Aon Risk Reward Challenge hole for the week (hole is strategically challenging in nature).

For every participating event, a player’s best two scores on the designated hole counts towards the season-long leaderboard.

The player with lowest average score under par across the regular season wins the Aon Risk Reward Challenge and will be awarded at the CME Group Tour Championship.
