- Three players selected by the U.S. Solheim Cup Team Captain

Scoring

Win – one point

Loss – no points

Tie – ½ point for each team

Competition Format

The two teams are made up of 12 players, a captain and three assistant captains. The three-day competition includes two days featuring a morning session of four foursome matches and an afternoon session of four fourball matches, and all 12 players competing in head-to-head singles matches. In total, there are 28 matches played.

Foursome Matches

Two golfers from the same team are paired together to compete against two golfers from the other team. Each team plays one ball, and the golfers play alternate shots until the hole is played out.

Fourball Matches

Each member of the two-player team plays her own ball. Four balls are in play on each hole. The lowest score from each team will be the score for that team.

Singles

One player from the U.S. Team competes against one player from the European Team, with each playing their own ball.

Whiteline Par and Yardage

34-37—71, 6,318 yards/5,777 meters
