This week on the LPGA Tour:
TOTO Japan Classic at Taiheiyo Club Minori Course

Aon Risk Reward Challenge Update

The 12th hole at Taiheiyo Club Minori Course is a par five that will be set up with different lengths over the course of the week. With the tees back, less than one-third of the field is expected to go for the green in two. Pushing the tees forward puts more players in a position to make a decision with their second shot - 70% are expected to go for the green in two in that situation. With the tee moved up, players who find the fairway with their drive have an expected scoring average of 4.44.

At the end of the regular season, the most consistent player across each tour, with the lowest average score under par, on the Aon Risk Reward Challenge holes captures the $1 million prize.

Aon is committed to a diverse workforce and an inclusive culture where everyone can thrive, ensuring delivery of the best innovative solutions for clients. As such, providing equal prize money to both the PGA TOUR and LPGA Tour aligns with Aon’s core values and brand.

Aon’s Risk Reward Challenge Scoring

One hole is selected at each tournament as the designated Aon Risk Reward Challenge hole for the week (hole is strategically challenging in nature).

For every participating event, a player’s best two scores on the designated hole counts towards the season-long leaderboard.

The player with lowest average score under par across the regular season wins the Aon Risk Reward Challenge and will be awarded at the CME Group Tour Championship.
