With rain softening the course, the average driving distance on the 17th hole at Highland Meadows GC took a steep drop of 19 yards from '22 to '23. This led to the rate of players who decided to go for the green falling from 23% to just 7%. Much of the field was unable to take advantage of their length off the tee - but not tournament winner Linn Grant in rounds one and three. She went for it in two both days after pounding drives 13 yards beyond the field average, making birdies both days.

Auston Kim currently holds first place on the leaderboard with a -0.958 average on the season-long challenge. 2022 Rookie of the Year Atthaya Thitikul is not far behind in second place with an average of -0.938. Lila Vu, in third place, and Madelene Sagstrom, in fourth place, are close in scores battling for a top spot with averages of -0.889 and -0.885, respectively.

The Race to the CME Globe is a season-long points competition with LPGA Tour Members accumulating points in every official LPGA event to qualify for the season-ending tournament, the CME Group Tour Championship. The player who wins the CME Group Tour Championship is named the "Race to the CME Globe Champion." The top 60 points earners and ties earn a spot into the season finale with the entire field competing for a $11 million purse, increased from $7 million last season, and is highlighted by a $4 million winner's check, which is the largest single prize in the history of women's golf.

CME Group Cares Challenge – Score 1 for St. Jude Update:

The CME Group Cares Challenge is a season-long charitable giving program that turns aces into donations. CME Group donates $20,000 for each hole-in-one made on the LPGA Tour in 2024, with a minimum guaranteed donation of $500,000 to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, which is leading the way in how the world understands, treats and defeats childhood cancer and life-threatening diseases. There have been 13 total holes-in-one made this season, bringing the 2024 donation total to $280,000. At the most recent event, the Amundi Evian Championship, Jodi Ewart Shadoff, Peiyun Chien and amateur Chun-Wei Wu made holes-in-one.
