FURUE LEADS BEFORE SECOND-ROUND PLAY IS SUSPENDED AT AMUNDI EVIAN CHAMPIONSHIP

The second round of The Amundi Evian Championship was suspended due to dangerous weather conditions. Players were evacuated from the golf course due to storms in the area at 4:23 p.m. local time. The second round was then officially called for the day at 6:09 p.m. local time.

Heading into Saturday, Japan’s Ayaka Furue leads the field at 12-under par and three shots clear of her closest competitors. With five holes still left in her second round, Furue is 6-under par and bogey-free through 31 holes. Stephanie Kyriacou and Haeran Ryu are nine-under par for the tournament and each sit at 4-under par in their second round. Both players return on Saturday to complete their second rounds with Kyriacou through 16 holes and Ryu through 11.

Prior to the suspension of play, the morning wave was able to complete round two and several players made jumps into the top-10 with their second-round scores. With a second-round 63, LPGA Tour rookie Yu Jin Sung started the day in a tie for 75th and currently sits tied for sixth heading into Saturday. Sung recorded an eagle, seven birdies and one bogey during her second round to sign for the lowest 18-hole of her young career. She is just the third player in Amundi Evian Championship major history to shoot a 63 or lower in the second round (Jeongeun Lee6 shot a 61 and Ariya Jutanugarn a 63 in 2021). She looks to continue her solid play to earn her second consecutive top-10 finish following her T8 at the Dow Championship alongside playing partner Mao Saigo.

“I think the course is pretty familiar to courses I’ve played in Korea,” said Sung. “It’s a bit tougher here than in Korea, but there are many similarities so I think Korean players may have an advantage in attacking the pins. Even if you hit it well, the ball tends to bounce out quite a bit so it’s important to keep your mental game in and focus when that happens.”

LPGA Tour veteran Mi Hyang Lee recorded a 5-under 66 to move into a tie for sixth from 21st place. Additionally, three players (Georgia Hall, Narin An and Jin Young Ko) recorded second-round scores of 67 on Friday morning to sit in a tie for 10th.

Sixty-six players return on Saturday to complete their second rounds with play resuming at 7:30 a.m. and practice facilities opening at 5:30 a.m. local time. The cut to the top 65 and ties will be made after the conclusion of round two. Round three is scheduled to begin at approximately 10:45 a.m. local time.

QUOTABLES

Defending champion Celine Boutier on her last couple rounds:

"Feeling good. I feel like my game has been very solid the last two days. I definitely feel like my long game has been kind of carrying me, and I feel like I could have shot a few strokes lower yesterday and today so that's pretty positive. Because I can improve. I think just a few putts here and there and we'll be in good position."

Albane Valenzuela on playing near her home country:

"This definitely feels like a home event. I love coming back to Evian. Have the whole family, boyfriend, agent who is like a friend. She's looking at me right now. And then a lot of family friends. So I can definitely feel the support from Switzerland and a lot of friends from home. Super exciting."

Georgia Hall on her recent nagging injury:

"My backswing has changed a bit. I've had to adapt and change my swing because of it. And, yeah, I knew I was playing well coming into this. I've kind of been on the -- kind of I would say onward, upwards transition the last couple months and scores didn't really show that much. I was confident and I was just gutted because I thought I was playing well, about my shoulder. Again, I'm just happy to be playing, yeah."

Mi Hyang Lee on why Evian Resort Golf Club is her favorite:

"So back to 2013 it was almost like my rookie year, so I was I think my ranked was 107, 108, but so they started major with Evian maybe 2013, so they increase for the more -- the player can play this tournament, so I was last get in, and I made tie 16 or 17, so I made top 100, so don't need any Q-School, Q-Series. So it was good start for my memory with Evian, and also like 2015, 2016, I just play with Lydia when she won here. Yeah, was my just great experience like playing the last group, final round. So it was -- I mean, I don't know why, but like really like view is great, and then hotel is great, everyone, like volunteers is great, and everyone is so kind of us, too. This is my favorite golf tournament."
