2024 LPGA Tour Storylines

- The 2024 LPGA Tour schedule features 33 official events in 10 different countries and 15 different states in the U.S.
    - The states with the most official LPGA Tournaments this season are Florida (four), New Jersey (three), and Michigan (two), California (two) and Ohio (two)
    - This year's schedule features two new events – the FM Global Championship and the Arizona Championship presented by JTBC.
    - In 2024, Seri Pak will join major champions Michelle Wie West (Mizuho Americas Open) and Annika Sorenstam (The ANNIKA driven by Gainbridge at Pelican) as an LPGA Tour event host at the FIR HILLS Seri Pak Championship
- This season's major championship venues include:
    - The Club at Carlton Woods in The Woodlands, Texas (Chevron Championship)
    - Lancaster Country Club in Lancaster, Penn. (U.S. Women's Open)
    - Sahalee Country Club in Sammamish, Wash. (KPMG Women's PGA Championship)
    - Evian Resort Golf Club in Evian-les-Bains, France (Amundi Evian Championship)
    - St Andrews (Old Course) in Fife, Scotland (AIG Women's Open)
- The year marks the 19th edition of the Solheim Cup at Robert Trent Jones Golf Club in Gainesville, Virginia
    - Captaining the U.S. Solheim Cup Team is 13-time LPGA Tour winner Stacy Lewis, and 15-time LPGA Tour winner Suzann Pettersen is leading the European Solheim Cup Team
        - 2024 Solheim Cup Media Center
        - Meet the U.S. Team
        - Meet the European Team
        - In 2023, Europe retained the Solheim Cup in a 14-14 tie with the United States
- Between the Portland Classic and the Women's Scottish Open, LPGA Tour athletes will have an opportunity to compete for their home countries at the 2024 Paris Olympics
    - This will be the third-straight Games that includes the women's golf competition
    - Qualifying for the 60-player field ends following the KPMG Women's PGA Championship with the top-15 players in the Rolex Women's World Golf Rankings automatically qualifying for the Games (no more than four players per country), and the remaining sports awarded to the highest-ranked players from countries that do not already have two qualified players
    - At the 2020 Tokyo Olympics, Nelly Korda (Gold), Mone Inami (Silver) and Lydia Ko (Bronze) earned medals
- The 2024 schedule will also feature the second annual Grant Thornton Invitational, a mixed-team event that will see players from the LPGA Tours and PGA TOUR compete in a co-sanctioned tournament
    - The Grant Thornton Invitational's 32-player field will be comprised of 16 LPGA Tour and 16 PGA TOUR professionals competing for a combined $4 million purse
- In 2024, active LPGA Tour players represent 33 different countries (including the U.S.)
- There are 26 Tour rookies this season representing 12 different countries (including the U.S.)
- In 2024, players are competing for more than $125 million in total prize money, a record-breaking amount and up approximately $55 million compared to 2019 ($70 million)

- The 2024 season will feature two season-long races:
    - The Race to the CME Globe will give the top 60 players, following the ANNIKA driven by Gainbridge LPGA at Pelican, entry into the CME Group Tour Championship and the opportunity to play for a $11 million purse and $4 million winner's check, the largest first-place prize in the history of women's golf
    - The Aon Risk Reward Challenge, a competition on both the PGA and LPGA Tours, will feature the world's best golfers as they navigate risk across the season's most strategically challenging holes; the player from each Tour at the top of the Aon leaderboard at the end of the regular season will receive $1 million
