

2025 LPGA Tour Storylines

- The LPGA Tour will commemorate its 75th anniversary season throughout 2025, celebrating its legacy as the world's longest-running women's professional sports organization
- The 2025 LPGA Tour schedule features 32 official events in 12 different countries and 14 different states in the U.S.
 - Two new events – the Black Desert Championship and MEXICO Riviera Maya Open at Mayakoba – are featured in 2025
 - Players will compete in the first annual Black Desert Championship at the Black Desert Resort's signature course, and will be accommodated with the only private charters at a domestic event on the LPGA Tour
 - The LPGA Tour returns to Mexico for the first time since 2017 for the MEXICO Riviera Maya Open at Mayakoba, at Mayakoba's El Camaleón Course
 - Players will compete for a historic prize fund of almost $130 million in 2025
 - This is the largest prize fund in the Tour's history and a 90% increase from 2021
- The 2025 major championship venues include:
 - The Club at Carlton Woods in The Woodlands, Texas (The Chevron Championship)
 - Erin Hills in Erin, Wisc. (U.S. Women's Open)
 - Fields Ranch East at PGA Frisco in Frisco, Texas (KPMG Women's PGA Championship)
 - Evian Resort Golf Club in Evian-les-Bains, France (Amundi Evian Championship)
 - Royal Porthcawl in Wales, United Kingdom (AIG Women's Open)
- The Hanwha LIFEPLUS International Crown returned in 2025, taking place at New Korea Country Club in Goyang, Republic of Korea
 - The bi-annual team match-play event features eight teams, represented by four athletes each, all competing for the coveted crown
 - The 2025 competition included a World Team made up of the top-ranked player from each of the following four regions, not from a country already qualified: Americas (North America and South America); Europe; Asia; and Africa and Oceania
 - The last edition of the event took place in 2023 at TPC Harding Park in San Francisco where the Thailand Team of Ariya Jutanugarn, Moriya Jutanugarn, Patty Tavatanakit and Jeeno Thitikul claimed the crown
 - In 2025, the Australian Team of Minjee Lee, Hannah Green, Grace Kim, and Steph Kyriacou claimed the crown defeating the United States in the Championship Match
- The schedule includes the third annual Grant Thornton Invitational, where the 32-player field comprised of 16 LPGA Tour and 16 PGA TOUR professionals compete for a combined $4 million purse ($2 million each Tour)
 - Former UCLA athletes Patty Tavatanakit and Jake Knapp won the second edition of the event at Tiburon Golf Club in Naples, Fla.
- There are 22 LPGA Tour rookies in 2025, representing 12 different countries (including the U.S.)
- There are 15 players on the LPGA Tour that earned status for the 2025 season through competing on the Epson Tour in 2024
 - The top-10 finishers (Lauren Stephenson, Yuhui Zhang, Fatima Fernandez Cano, Jessica Porvasnik, Brooke Matthews, Ingrid Lindblad, Jenny Bae, Fiona Xu, Madison Young and Cassie Porter) will serve as 2025 Epson Tour Ambassadors
- The 2025 season features several season-long competitions including:

- Race to the CME Globe: a season-long points competition in which LPGA Members accumulate points in every Official LPGA Tournament to gain entry into the season-ending CME Group Tour Championship, where they will compete for an $11 million purse
 - The $4 million winner's check at the CME Group Tour Championship is the largest first-place prize in the history of women's golf
- Aon Risk Reward Challenge: a unique, season-long competition that highlights the game's best players as they navigate some of the most strategically challenging holes
 - The player at the top of the Aon leaderboard at the end of the regular season will receive $1 million
 - Jeeno Thitikul (2024), Angel Yin (2023), Minjee Lee (2022), Hannah Green (2021) and Carlota Ciganda (2019) are past winners of the Aon Risk Reward Challenge
- Rolex Player of the Year: an award given to the player that has the most consistent and outstanding record during the current LPGA Tour season, with points awarded to Members finishing in the top 10 and ties in Official Tournaments
- Vare Trophy: an award given to the player on Tour with the lowest overall scoring average based on the Member's total yearly score in Official Tournaments divided by the number of official rounds she played during a season
- Louise Suggs Rolex Rookie of the Year: an award given to the first-year Member who scores the most points based on finish position at Official Tournaments during a season
- Rolex Annika Major Award: an award given to the player who has the most outstanding record in all five major championships during the LPGA Tour season
