Day 2 Recap: Hanwha LIFEPLUS International Crown

Top Notes to Know From Day 2:

- *United States: 21 holes won this week; trailed after just 5 of 62 holes played so far
- *Noh/Yin (USA): combined to make birdie or better on 15 of 28 holes played through 2 matches
- *World Team: unbeaten this week (2-0-2); 3 of 4 matches have reached the 18th hole
- *Thailand: 1-3-0 through 2 days; went 4-0-0 across the first two days in 2023 victory

*It has been a dominant start for the United States, going a perfect 4-0-0 so far and winning 21 total holes across the first two days, 5 more than the next closest team:

Performance Insights

*The United States 4-0-0 start is just the third instance of a team winning each of their first four matches at this event. Each of the first two came in 2023 at TPC Harding Park, when Thailand and Sweden each started 4-0-0 with Thailand eventually going on to win:

Teams to Start 4-0-0 in Round Robin Play Hanwha LIFEPLUS International Crown

	Finish
2023 Thailand	Won
2023 Sweden	4th
2025 United States	?

*The Americans have Angel Yin on their team this week, a good sight for any team – especially on the greens. Yin is ranked in the top-6 on the LPGA Tour in strokes gained putting this season for the third year in a row.

Angel Yin Strokes Gained Putting – Last 3 Seasons

	Per Round	LPGA Rank
2023	+1.40	1st
2024	+0.95	4th

*Only player ranked in top-10 each season

*On their way to victory at this event in 2023, Team Thailand was dominant across the first two days, going 4-0-0 and trailing for a total of just 3 holes. It has been a different story so far this season, going just 1-3-0 so far and trailing for 40 holes across their first four matches:
