

Performance Insights

Day 3 Recap: Hanwha LIFEPLUS International Crown

Top Notes to Know From Day 3:

- *United States: trailed after just 5 of 94 holes played this week
- *United States: 3rd team to go undefeated in round robin stage ('23 Thailand, '23 Sweden)
- *Japan: Won 10 total holes on day 3, their most of any day this week
- *Australia: Led after just under 25% of the holes they have played this week
- *Henderson/Hsu: Unbeaten as a pairing in round robin stage (2-0-1)

*For the second time in three days, the United States did not trail for a single hole in either of their two matches. For the week, they have trailed after just 5 of 94 holes played:

Team United States Performance Round Robin Stage

Match Record	5-0-1
Holes Played	94
Holes Won	29
Holes Leading Match	70
Holes Spent Trailing	5

*To further put the United States dominance through the first three days into perspective; they played the fewest holes of any team advancing out of the round robin stage and won the most holes of any team across the first 3 days:

Holes Played, Holes Won, Holes Led Advancing Teams – First 3 Days

	Holes Played	Holes Won
United States	94	29*
Japan	103	23
World Team	103	23
Australia	103	19

*Most of any team this week

Performance Insights

*The United States has led after nearly 75% of the holes they have played this week. In comparison, Team Australia has led after just under 25%:

Percentage of Holes Led Advancing Teams – First 3 Days

United States	74.5%
Japan	46.6%
World Team	39.8%
Australia	24.3%

*Minjee Lee has made 20 total birdies so far this week, tied for the most of any player across the first three days:

Most Birdies Made Round Robin Stage

	Total Birdies
Minjee Lee	20
Haeran Ryu*	20
Yealimi Noh	18
Ruixin Liu*	18
Hannah Green	17
Rio Takeda	17

*Not on advancing teams

*Among the players remaining on the semifinal teams, the World Team has two of the top four in terms of strokes gained per round this season:

Most Strokes Gained Per Round Players on Advancing Teams

	SG Total
Minjee Lee	+2.45
Charley Hull*	+2.04
Miyu Yamashita	+1.93
Lydia Ko*	+1.68
Rio Takeda	+1.57

*Both on World Team