CASANDRA ALEXANDER

Birth Date: August 13, 1999

Birthplace: Johannesburg, South Africa

Age: 26 Ht.: 5'7

Home: Johannesburg, South Africa

Turned Professional: 2018

Sunshine Ladies Tour Victories: 2 - 2020 Investec Royal Swazi, 2021 Joburg Ladies Open.

LET Victory: 1 - 2025 Tipsport Czech Ladies Open

LET Team Victories: 2020 Saudi Ladies Team International (paired with Emily Kristine Pedersen and Michele Thomson)

Player Notes: Alexander started playing golf at age 10. She grew up with her mother and older brother, as her father passed away when she was two and a half years old. A friend of the family gave her a small golf club to play around with; that is how she got started. Sports have always been very prominent in Cassandra's life, and at one point when she was young, she played eight different sports. Due to limited time, she chose to play field hockey and golf, and when she was 16, she decided to focus on golf. Casandra played golf because it was great fun and she had a passion for it. She watched Nicole Garcia, Nobuhle Dlamini, Ashleigh Buhai, and Lee Anne Pace winning in her first few amateur events. It inspired her to keep practicing and developing her game, and her commitment to golf became more serious. Her role model is Lee Anne Pace because Casandra aspired to be like her when she was an amateur. Carly Booth inspires her because she seems adventurous and highly engages with her sponsors and network. Her foremost achievement as an amateur was winning the South African Stroke Play Championship in 2016. Alexander turned professional in late 2018 and joined the Sunshine Ladies Tour. In 2020, she won the Ladies Event at the Investec Royal Swazi Open and the Joburg Ladies Open. In 2021, she finished second in the 2021 Order of Merit, behind Lee-Anne Pace. She played three seasons on the Sunshine Ladies Tour as an amateur and one year as a professional.

Alexander joined the Ladies European Tour in January 2020 but missed most of the season due to the COVID-19 pandemic, unable to travel to Europe. In November, she made her breakthrough with a victory in the Saudi Ladies Team International alongside Emily Kristine Pedersen and Michele Thomson. She holed the winning putt for a closing birdie on the 54th hole, sealing the victory for her team.

VANESSA BOUVET

Birth Date: January 06, 1999

Birthplace: Domas, France

Age: 27 Ht.: 5'5 Wt.: 0

College: Nebraska

Turned Professional: 2004

Player Notes: [She shot 69 in qualifying at St. Annes Old Links to earn one of 13 spots]

Bouvet started playing golf when she was five years old in Venezuela, thanks to my dad, who introduced her to the sport. From the very beginning, developed a love for golf that grew quickly. She started playing in competitive junior events by the age of six when she moved to Houston, and that's when she realized how much she enjoyed the challenge and the competition.

When she moved to New Zealand, she continued to pursue golf seriously, competing throughout her primary, secondary, and sixth-form years at school. She had the opportunity to play internationally ( Australia, Asia, Europe), which helped her gain invaluable experience and further sharpen her skills.

Decided to take her passion for golf to the next level by attending the University of Nebraska, where she played Division I golf. Her college years were filled with growth and development, both as a player and a person, and she graduated in 2022. Competing at the Division I level was awesome and taught her a lot about discipline, teamwork, and resilience.

In 2024, she had the chance to compete in eight events on the Ladies European Tour Access Series (LETAS); her best finish was T-9th at the Terre Blanche Ladies Open. It was an incredible experience that pushed her to perform at a higher level and gave me a taste of what it's like to compete on the professional circuit. She enjoyed the challenge, and it confirmed my desire to take my game to even greater heights.

Looking ahead to 2025, her goal is to earn an LET card through Q School and turn professional by the end of 2024. Since she was young, her dream has always been to play on the Ladies European Tour and the LPGA Tour, and I'm more excited than ever to make that dream a reality. I'm committed to putting in the work, and I can't wait to see where this journey takes me.

2025 Notes: Turned pro at the end of 2024 and finished T-19th at the final stage of Lalla Aicha Q-School. Played in 14 LET events, making 3 cuts. In those events, finished T-57th at the Tipsport Czech Ladies Open, T-67th at the KPMG Women's Irish Open and 67th at the Lacoste Ladies Open de France. Returned to Lalla Aiche Q-School, in the finals finished T-36th, getting her limited exemptions to the LET in 2026.

2026 Played in five LET events:

T-65th at the Australian WPGA

Missed cut at MCB Ladies Classic-Mauritius, Amundi German Masters, Lalla Meryem Cup and Jabra Ladies Open de France.

Played once on the LETAS and missed the cut at the Calatayud Ladies Open.

Playing for the first time in the AIG Women's Open.

Ladies Sunshine Tour: has won numerous times including 2017 Cape Town Ladies Open and Sun International Ladies Challenge

Player Notes: Also known as Ashleigh Ann Simon, she started playing golf at around age 6 and credits her dad for introducing her to the sport.

When she's not playing golf, she enjoys playing all sports, listening to music, spending time with family and friends, and trying to play her guitar. She says the top items on her bucket list would be: going to the Masters, watching a cricket game at Lord's Cricket Ground, and going to the Rugby World Cup.

Enjoyed a well-decorated amateur career, winning four professional events as an amateur. She won the 2004 South African Open at age 14 and the 2005 Pam Golding Classic and Nedbank Masters in 2006 on the Ladies African Tour. Before turning professional in 2007, she won the South African Open for the second time. She is a four-time South African Amateur Stroke Play champion (2004-07) and a three-time South African Amateur Match Play champion (2004, 2006-07). Simon competed in the 2006 Rolex Tournament of Champions and on the gold-medal-winning team at the 2006 Women's World Amateur Team Championship. She also partnered with Laurette Maritz three times to represent South Africa in the Women's World Cup of Golf, an unofficial event on the LPGA Tour (2005-07). She qualified for the Tour on her first attempt.

She turned professional a day after turning 18 and made her debut playing on an invitation in the 2007 Deutsche Bank Ladies Swiss Open, where she missed the cut. Playing on invitations, she then finished T-20th in the Northern Ireland Ladies Open, T-28th in the KLM Ladies Open in Holland. She was victorious in the Catalonia Ladies Masters, a limited-field event for the top 40 players on the LET. She became the second-youngest winner on the LET after Amy Yang and the youngest-ever professional winner at age 18 years, 37 days. As a result of her win, she became a Category 3 member (tournament winner) of the LET on July 9. She then played in the Evian Masters, Scandinavian TPC, Wales Ladies Championship of Europe, and Dubai Ladies Masters. However, because she joined the Tour mid-season, her winnings before her becoming a member were not reflected on the New Star Money List, and she did not appear on the Rookie of the Year table until 2008.

2010 Notes: Played in 18 events with a season-best 3rd place in the Unicredit Ladies German Open and T-3rd in the ABN AMRO Ladies Open. Finished 14th on the Henderson Money List with season earnings of €103,759.10.

2011 Notes: She played in 20 events and recorded her second career win in the Portugal Ladies Masters at Campo Real. She also recorded five top-10 finishes, including T-3rd in the Sanya Ladies Open in China, T-5th in the Ladies Scottish Open, joint 6th in the Ladies Irish Open, T-7th in the Lalla Meryem Cup, and T-9th in the Raiffeisenbank Prague Masters.

2012 Notes: Played in 18 events and made the cut in 12. Posted four top-10 finishes: a T-3rd in the ISPS Handa Ladies British Masters, a T-6th in both Slovakia and South Africa, and a T-9th in Tenerife. Finished 38th on the Order of Merit rankings.

2013 Notes: Played in nine LET events and recorded four top-10 finishes, with her best a T-2nd in the ISPA Handa Ladies European Masters, where she fired a career-low 63 in the opening round. Also, T-2nd in the South African Women's Open.

2014 Notes: Joined the LPGA Tour and made the cut in nine of 18 events, with the best finish of T-15th in the Swinging Skirts LPGA Classic. Played in eight LET tournaments, with the best finish of T-8th in the Sanya Ladies Open.

2015 Notes: Made the cut in eight of 17 starts on the LPGA Tour, with the best finish of T-42nd in the ShopRite LPGA Classic, finishing 117th on the money list. Fared better on the LET, where she entered seven events, finished second at the Helsingborg Open, and was 29th on the Order of Merit.

2016 Notes: After suffering dizzy spells in 2015, she had small plastic tubes inserted into her eardrums to ease vertigo. Those problems spilled over to 2016, where in 16 LPGA starts, she made eight cuts. Her best finish was T-22nd in the ShopRite LPGA Classic. She finished 107th on the money list with $73,210. She played in 10 events on the LET and had two top-20 finishes: T-5th in the Omega Dubai Ladies Masters and T-18th in the RACV Ladies Masters. She finished 40th on the Order of Merit with €38,800. In Dec. 2016, she married David Buhai, who has served as her caddie. They got engaged in Dec. 2015 after playing in the Dubai Ladies Masters. Simon made a double bogey on her last hole and was met on the green by Buhai, who dropped to one knee and proposed. Did play in the Olympics for South Africa, finishing 50th.

2017 Notes: She played in South Africa on the Ladies Sunshine Tour, and in eight events, she won twice - Cape Town Ladies Open and Sun International Ladies Challenge. On the tour's biggest event, the South African Women's Open, she placed 2nd, 7 shots back of the winner Lee Anne Pace. Also finished runner-up in the South African Women's Masters and Ladies Tshwane Open. She played in 21 events on the LPGA Tour, making 11 cuts, with 3 top-five finishes. Her best was a T-2nd in the Thornberry Creek

LPGA Classic, then T-3rd at the BlueBay LPGA, and T-5th at the Indy Women In Tech Championship. She finished 42nd on the LPGA Tour money list.

2018 Notes: Won the South African Women's Open on the LET, beating Karolin Lampert by two shots. It was the 3rd time she won the tournament, but it was her first as a professional. She won as an amateur in 2004 and 2007 before it became a LET event. Played in 28 LPGA events, making 17 cuts with one top-ten, T-7th at the ShopRite Classic. Won $254,692, ranking 72nd and 52nd in the CME race.

2019 Notes: Played in six LET events, missing the cut at the Ladies Classic - Bonville, T-8th at the Investec South African Women's Open, T-37th at the Evian Championship, 5th at the AIG Women's Open, missed the cut at the ASI Ladies Scottish Open, and T-26th at the Andalucia Open De Espana. On the LPGA Tour, played in 27 events, making 19 cuts with one top-ten, the 5th at the AIG Women's Open. After that was T-11th at the ISPS Handa Vic Open and T-11th at the Pure Silk Championship. She earned $407,546 and was 51st on the money list and 56th on the CME points list.

2020 Notes: Played in 16 LPGA events, making 14 cuts with three top-ten finishes. She was 24th on the money list with $429,628 and 24th on the CME points list. Best finish: 2nd at the Cambia Portland Classic, losing a two-hole playoff to Georgia Hall. She was T-6th at the ShopRite Classic and 10th at the Pelican Women's Championship. Ashleigh played only three LET events, but that did not stop her from finishing 44th on the Race to Costa del Sol, recording a 15th-place finish at her native Investec SA Women's Open and an 11th-place finish at the AIG Women's Open at Royal Troon, where she closed with a final round 68. She spent several months in South Africa during the COVID hiatus and hit balls into a net in the garden of her parents' home. During the offseason, she practiced in Florida with Ernie Els and Branden Grace.

2021 Notes: Played in 24 LPGA events, making 18 cuts with two top-ten finishes. She was 70th on the CME Points list, finishing 75th on the money list with $229,695 in earnings. She played in four LET events with one top-ten and was 43rd on the money list with €51,021. Started the year T-8th at the Gainbridge LPGA, her only top-ten finish. In the Aramco Team Series, Sotogrande on the LET was 2nd, five back of the winner Alison Lee. She qualified for the Tokyo Olympics as a South African team member but didn't play. There were many reasons for this, but the main one was that if I tested positive or got exposed to someone who had COVID-19 in the Athletes Village, it would put me out of the Scottish Open and the AIG Women's Open. She was T-8th at the Cambia Portland Open and finished the year with a T-57th finish at the Pelican Women's Championship.

2022 Notes: Played in 24 LPGA Tour events, making 15 cuts with three top-ten finishes. She was 27th on the CME rankings and 10th on the money list with earnings of $1,553,004. She was 4th at the LPGA Lotte Championship, five shots back of the winner Hyo Joo Kim. Shot a final round 67 to finish T-9th at the Palos Verdes Championship. At the AIG Women's Open at Muirfield, shot a third-round 64 and went into the final round with a five-shot lead. But she made a triple-bogey at the 15th hole in the final round, shooting 75, and was caught by Gee Chun. Buhai won the playoff with a par on the fourth extra hole. It was Buhai's first LPGA Tour victory in her 221st start. She ended her season winning the ISPS Handa Women's Australian Open on the LET, beating Jiyai Shin by a shot.

2023 Notes: Played in 23 LPGA Tour events, making 17 cuts with six top-ten finishes. She was 23rd on the CME rankings and 26th on the money list, earning $1,016,049. Opened the LPGA season with a T-9th at the Hilton Tournament of Champions, T-10th at the Honda LPGA Thailand, and 7th at the HSBC Women's Champions. In between, she won the Investec SA Women's Open by four shots over Ana Pelaez Trivino. She was 3rd at the Cognizant Founders Cup, three shots out of the Jin Young Ko/Minjee Lee playoff. She had a final round 64 to finish T-7th at the Mizuho Americas Open. The next week shot a final round 65 to win the ShopRite Classic by a shot over Hyo Joo Kim. She ended her season, finishing T-50th at the CME Group Tour Championship.

2024 Notes: Played in 22 LPGA Tour events, making 18 cuts with two top-ten finishes. She was 66th on the CME rankings and 67th on the money list, earning $569,681. She played at the Paris Olympics as a member of South Africa's women's golf team, finishing T-13th. She was 6th at the Walmart NW Arkansas Championship for her first top-10 on the LPGA in 2024. She was the 36-hole leader in the three-round event, and shot 69 Sunday to finish four shots out of the playoff won by Jasmine Suwannapura. She was T-6th at the BMW Ladies Championship, four shots back of the winner, Hannah Green. In December, she finished second in the Australian Women's Open, two shots behind the winner Jiyai Shin.

2025 Notes: Played in 22 LPGA Tour events, making 14 cuts with two top-ten finishes. She was 80th on the CME Points list and 88th on the money list with $291,880 in earnings. She was T-9th at the T-Mobile Match Play. Buhai lost her round-of-16 match to Celine Boutier on the 10th playoff hole, the longest match in the event's history. In January of 2025, she twisted her left knee badly and ended up with a grade 1 tear in her MCL. She took six weeks off and missed the Asia swing in February/March. Then in April, she was leading in LA, and during the third round, she had an awkward lie in a bunker and her knee buckled, aggravating it again. It didn't feel completely healed until June. Another setback was to follow. At the Walmart tournament in Arkansas, she ended up in hospital for three days with a punctured lung. They had to insert a chest tube to reinflate the lung. She wasn't allowed to fly, so had to drive 18 hours back to Florida and rest for 10 days. During this time, she was making her bed and put her back out really badly. She thinks this happened because she had been lying down and sitting for so many days, and when she tends not to keep her body moving and activated, this can sometimes happen. She played in the fall Asian swing but couldn't swing at full speed.

2026 Notes: Started the year feeling good again. Looking forward to the AIG Women's and the memories of 2022 that it brings. Planning on having her whole family at Lytham for what Buhai calls "her favorite event of the year." Best finish, T-40th at the ShopRite Classic.

LPGA Tour Playoff Record: 0-4

LPGA Tour Victories: 4 - 2015 U.S. Women's Open; 2016 The Evian Championship; 2018 LPGA KEB Hana Bank Championship; 2022 KPMG Women's PGA Championship

LPGA of Korea Tour Victories: 10 - 2013 Kia Motors Korea Women's Open; 2014 S-Oil Champions Invitational, KDB Daewoo Securities Classic, Chosun Ilbo-POSCO Championship; 2015 Samchully Together Open, Doosan Match Play Championship, S-Oil Champions Invitational, Hite Jinro Championship, KB Financial Star Championship, 2018 LPGA KEB Hana Bank Championship

LPGA of Japan Tour Wins: 2 - 2015 World Ladies Championship Salonpas Cup, Japan Women's Open.

Player Notes: She is known as "Dumbo" in Korea, and she has a fan club called the Flying Dumbos. Started playing golf in fourth grade when her father introduced her to the game. Owns seven KLPGA wins and one JLPGA win. One of her KLPGA victories was a major, the 2013 Korea Women's Open. Her JLPGA win was the 2015 World Ladies Championship Salonpas Cup. She was first on the KLPGA Money List. Finished 4th on the money list in 2014 after placing 3rd in 2013. In 2014, voted "Most Popular Player" by fans and "Most Influential Player" by the media. Her coach, Won Park, nicknamed her Dumbo because once she believes in something, she makes a full commitment without any second thought, although she is a woman with a lot of curiosity in every aspect of her game and life.

Chun's most memorable moment of 2014 came at the KEB Hana Bank Championship, an LPGA co-sanctioned event. After a disappointing first round, she climbed the leaderboard the next two days, then seized the lead on the back nine on Sunday. She had a putt to win but missed, winding up in a playoff with Q Baek and Brittany Lincicome. Alas, Chun hit an iron in the water during the playoff, and Baek won. But her T-2nd showed she was ready to contend at the LPGA level. Her finish on the KLPGA money list should give her a few chances to play in some LPGA Tour major championships in 2015.

2015 Notes: She won eight times worldwide in 2015, including the U.S. Women's Open and the Japan Women's Open, and five times on the Korean LPGA Tour. Both her wins in Japan were majors on the JLPGA (Japan Women's Open and the Salonpas Cup), and she won two majors on the Korean LPGA Tour as well (the Hite Jinro Championship and the KB Financial Star Championship). She also won the Korean LPGA money title. At the U.S. Women's Open, she came from four shots back with a final-round 66 to beat Amy Yang by one stroke. She birdied three of her first seven holes Sunday to pull within one of the lead before bogeys on holes 8 and 10 dropped her three back of Yang. She made birdies on holes 15 through 17 to go ahead by three. Her 272 total tied the U.S. Women's Open scoring record, and she was the third-youngest winner of the Open (20 years, 11 months), behind Inbee Park and Se Ri Pak. It was her first USGA event and her eighth LPGA start. She won the Japan Women's Open in a three-way playoff over Mi Hyang Lee and Erika Kikuchi after they had tied at 2-under 286. Earlier in the year, she won the Japan LPGA's World Ladies Championship Salonpas Cup in May. Chun led by five entering the final round and shot 73 on Sunday to beat Momoko Ueda by four strokes.

2016 Notes: She got off to a hot start, finishing either 2nd or 3rd in her first four starts. Was T-3rd at the COATES Golf Championship, 2nd at the Honda LPGA Thailand, T-2nd at the ANA Inspiration, and T-2nd at the LOTTE Championship. She had a problem in March, just after the Honda LPGA Thailand, when she was injured in an accident at Singapore's Changi Airport. Chang Ho Jang, the father of fellow South Korean player Ha Na Jang, lost control of a carry-on bag on an escalator, striking Chun in the back and injuring muscles around her tailbone. This forced Chun to withdraw from the HSBC Women's, and by coincidence, Jang won the event. Not only did Chun not play in Singapore, but she also missed the Founders Cup and the Kia Classic before returning at the ANA Inspiration and finishing 2nd, one shot back of the winner, Lydia Ko. She had her third runner-up finish in four starts at the Lotte Championship, finishing one shot back of winner Minjee Lee. She was third at the Meijer Classic, two shots out of the playoff won by Sei Young Kim. She was T-13th at the Rio Olympics as a member of South Korea's women's golf team. She won the Evian Championship in record fashion, shooting 21 under 263 to beat So Yeon Ryu and Sung Hyun Park by four shots. Chun's 21-under score is the lowest mark in a men's or women's major championship, bettering the record of 20-under set by Jason Day in the 2015 PGA Championship and tied by Henrik Stenson in the 2016 Open Championship. Five players had previously shot 19-under in a women's major. Chun's 263 also broke the LPGA major championship 72-hole scoring record previously set by Betsy King (267, 1992 Women's PGA Championship). She joined Se Ri Pak as the only player whose first two LPGA victories were majors. For the year, Chun played 19 LPGA events, making 18 cuts and finishing with 11 top-10s. She was 4th on the money list with $1,501,102 and 9th in CME Points, and won the Louise Suggs Rookie of the Year award and the Vare Trophy.

2017 Notes: Played in 23 LPGA events, making 21 cuts with 10 top-10 finishes. She went over the million-dollar mark, finishing 11th on the money list with earnings of $1,250,259. She had five runner-up finishes at the Bank of Hope Founders Cup, LPGA Lotte Championship, Kingsmill Championship, and Manulife Financial LPGA Classic, where she lost a playoff to Ariya Jutanugarn. Also finished runner-up at the Cambia Portland Classic, a shot back of the winner, Stacy Lewis. She was also 3rd at the Canadian Pacific Women's Open and LPGA KEB HanaBank Championship.

2018 Notes: Played in 20 LPGA events, making 19 cuts and four top-ten finishes. She was runner-up at the Kingsmill Championship; she was in the playoff that Ariya Jutanugarn won, but Chun was eliminated on the first playoff hole. Also finished T-5th at the Bank of America Founders Cup. In February, I was given the honor of carrying the Olympic torch into the stadium during the Winter Olympics opening ceremony in PyeongChang, Korea. She was named to the South Korean team in the UL.

International Crown as a replacement for Inbee Park. Chun went 4-0-0 as Korea won the title. Chun won for the first time on the LPGA in two years at the KEB Hana Bank Championship in her home country of South Korea, shooting 16-under 272 to beat Charley Hull by 3 shots. She earned $741,691 and was 26th on the money list. Was 21st in the Race to CME.

2019 Notes: Played in 23 LPGA events, making 18 cuts with two top-ten finishes. She was 67th on the money list, earning $270,213. She was 62nd on the CME points list. Best finish T-4th at the BMW Ladies Championship, T-6th at the Dow Great Lakes Bay Invitational with partner Lydia Ko.

2020 Notes: Played in 15 LPGA events, making 13 cuts with two top-ten finishes. She was 37th on the money list with earnings of $301,686. Finished 24th on the CME points list. Best finish T-7th at the Aberdeen Standard Investments Ladies Scottish Open and AIG Women's Open. With that finish in Scotland crossed the $4 million mark in official career earnings. Because of the break for COVID-19, Chun was able to return home to Korea and regain her passion for playing golf again.

2021 Notes: Played in 23 LPGA Tour events, making 19 cuts with eight top-ten finishes. She was 25th in on the CME points list and 25th on the money list with $754,538 in earnings. Started the season 4th at the Diamond Resorts Tournament of Champions, then T-8th at the Gainbridge LPGA, and 4th at the LPGA Drive On Championship at Golden Ocala. Shot a final round of 63 at the Meijer LPGA Classic, finishing four shots back of the winner, Nelly Korda. She was T-6th at the Amundi Evian Championship, five shots back of winner Minjee Lee. Was T-7th at the BMW Ladies Championship and finished the season T-9th at the CME Group Tour Championship.

2022 Notes: Played in 19 LPGA Tour events, making 18 cuts with three top-ten finishes. She was 9th in the CME rankings and 3rd on the money list, earning $2,673,860. She was T-2nd at the HSBC Women's Championship, two shots back of the winner Jin Young Ko. Was a wire-to-wire KPMG Women's PGA Championship winner, a shot ahead of Minjee Lee and Lexi Thompson. She was 2nd in the AIG Women's Open, losing on the fourth hole of a playoff to Ashleigh Buhai at Muirfield. Her final start of the season was T-33rd at the CME Group Tour Championship.

2023 Notes: Played in 20 LPGA Tour events, making 15 cuts with one top-ten finish. Best finish was T-8th at the CPKC Women's Open. She was a South Korean team member at the Hanwha LIFEPLUS International Crown and was 1-2 in the matches.

2024 Notes: Played in 11 LPGA Tour events, making 6 cuts with two top-25 finishes. She was 128th in the CME rankings and 141st on the money list, earning $85,268. Best finish, T-14th at the Mizuho Americas Open. In Gee struggled with injuries most of the year, and shortly after the U.S. Women's Open, she dropped out for the rest of the year.

2025 Notes: Played in 18 LPGA Tour events, making 13 cuts with no top-ten finishes. She was 99th on the CME Points list and 75th on the money list with $361,313 in earnings. She returned to golf at the Founders Cup in February but has struggled all year. Her best finish was T-18th at the Chevron Championship.

2026 Notes: Was 5th at the Ford Championship and 4th at the U.S. Women's Open, two shots back of the winner Nelly Korda.

Player Notes: Linn comes from a golfing family. Her grandfather was James Grant, a Scottish golf professional. James emigrated from Inverness, Scotland, to Helsingborg, Sweden. Linn's father, John, played on the Swedish Golf Tour, winning seven times, and was a club professional. The Grant family has had a fair bit of success at North Berwick Golf Club. James won the Scottish Boys Championship on the course, and Linn won the British Amateur Stroke Play Championship 49 years later. James died when Linn was 6 years old.

Grant joined the Swedish National Team in 2016 and represented her country at the European Girls' Team Championship, where Sweden was runner-up in 2016 and winner in 2017. She was part of the 3rd place team at the World Junior Girls Championship in Canada in 2017. She was then part of the Swedish team that won the European Ladies' Team Championship a record three times in 2018, 2019, and 2020.

Individually in 2016, she won the Doral-Publix Junior Classic and the Junior Masters Invitational. In 2017 she won the German Girls Open and recorded a season's Scottish double as she won the Helen Holm Scottish Women's Open Championship at Royal Troon by five strokes and the Women's Amateur Championship Stroke Play Championship at North Berwick Golf Club.

She was runner-up at the 2018 Major Champions Invitational in Florida, finished T-5th at the 2019 European Ladies Amateur Championship, and was a semifinalist at the 2019 British Ladies Amateur. Her achievements earned her an invitation to play at the inaugural Augusta National Women's Amateur in 2019 (Missed cut, 79-72).

Grant was a member of the 2017 European Junior Solheim Cup team and represented the Continent of Europe on the winning 2019 Vagliano Trophy team. She was selected to represent the 2020 Arnold Palmer Cup International Team.

In 2018, Grant won the qualification for the 2018 AIG Women's Open at St Anne's Old Links Golf Club with a round of 62. However, she missed the cut in the Women's Open at Royal Lytham & St Annes Golf Club after rounds of 78 and 72. She also won the sectional qualification for the 2018 U.S. Women's Open at Buckinghamshire Golf Club with rounds of 67 and 70, seven shots ahead of the runner-up Catriona Matthew and nine ahead of the third qualifier, Mel Reid. In the U.S. Open at Shoal Creek Club, Grant was T-4th and best amateur after opening rounds of 69 and 72, and finished T-57th after final rounds of 78 and 81.

Grant was a freshman at Arizona State University in 2019-20, along with compatriot Amanda Linner. She won her first varsity tournament for the Arizona State Sun Devils at the Dr. Donnis Thompson Invitational in Honolulu in March 2020. Playing with the Arizona State Sun Devils, Grant won three consecutive individual tournament titles in the spring of 2021.

Over the summer of 2020, she played on the Nordic Golf Tour, where she won the GolfUppsala Open. She lost in a playoff to Ingrid Lindblad at the 2020 Skafto Open, but a few weeks later won the Swedish Matchplay Championship, just like Anna Nordqvist, Caroline Hedwall, Maria Hjorth, Helen Alfredsson, and Liselotte Neumann before her. With the win, Grant secured victory in the 2020 Nordic Golf Tour Order of Merit, named the Road to Creekhouse Ladies Open, still an amateur, not allowed to receive prize money, and a spot at the Creekhouse Ladies Open at Kristianstad Golf Club on the 2021 Ladies European Tour. She was ranked 5th on the World Amateur Golf Ranking.

Grant announced her turning professional in August 2021, ranked 4th in the World Amateur Golf Ranking. In her first month as a professional, Grant claimed two successive second-place finishes on the Ladies European Tour at the Skafto Open and the Creekhouse Ladies Open. In October, she won her first tournament as a professional, the Terre Blanche Ladies Open in France, on the Ladies European Tour Access Series. In December 2021, she earned her LPGA Tour card at the LPGA Final Qualifying Tournament.

2022 Notes: Played in 17 LET events, making 13 cuts with three top-ten finishes. She was 33rd in the Race to Costa Del Sol and was 64th on the money list with earnings of €67,740. She had conditional status on the LPGA Tour but opted to play on the Ladies European Tour. She made 17 appearances and had four wins in her Rookie season, including two in her homeland, Sweden. Linn then had a further nine top-10 results and rocketed up to number 24 in the Rolex Women's World Golf Rankings. Linn edged out friend Maja Stark in the battle at the top of the Race to Costa del Sol, while the Swedish star also clinched Rookie of the Year and Players' Player of the Year. She was 2nd on the money list with earnings of €838,615. In February 2022, Grant won two titles on the Sunshine Ladies Tour in South Africa. She won her first Ladies European Tour title in March at the co-sanctioned Joburg Ladies Open. After a T-7th at the season-ending Investec South African Women's Open, she captured the Sunshine Ladies Tour's Order of Merit title ahead of Lee-Anne Pace. On the LET, she was 7th at the Madrid Ladies Open and won the Mithra Belgian

Ladies Open by a shot over Cara Gainer. In June, Grant became the first woman to win on the DP World Tour by winning the Volvo Car Scandinavian Mixed at Halmstad Golf Club in Sweden, a tournament with a mixed field of 78 women and 78 men. They play from different tees for the same title and the same prize money, but they are counted separately: the women on the Ladies European Tour and the men on the European Tour. Grant went into the final round with a two-shot lead and shot 64 to win by nine shots ahead of Marc Warren and Henrik Stenson. She was 14 shots ahead of the nearest woman, Gabriella Cowley, who finished T-15th. She played in six LPGA Tour events and won $792,828 to place her 57th on the money list and 56th in the CME rankings. She had four top-ten finishes, and she was best at 3rd at the Toto Japan Classic, with five shots back from winner Gemma Dryburgh. The high finish moved her into the top 60 on the CME standings on the LPGA Tour, but she could not play in the CME Group Tour Championship because she was not vaccinated against COVID-19 and could not enter the United States.

2023 Notes: She played in 10 LET events, making nine cuts with four Top-Ten Finishes. She was 9th in the Race To Costa Del Sol and 4th on the money list with earnings of Euro398,178. On the LPGA Tour, Grant could not travel to the U.S. because she was unvaccinated against COVID-19. However, on May 12, the U.S. government ended the ban on international travelers entering the country, paving the way for Grant to return to the U.S. The ban forced Grant to miss the Chevron Championship and the International Crown. She returned for the Bank of Hope Match-Play and finished T-3rd, losing to Pajaree Anannarukarn, 3 and 1, in the semifinals. She won the Dana Open for her first LPGA title, shooting 62 in the third round to take a six-shot lead into the final round. She shot 68 Sunday to beat Allisen Corpuz by three shots. Age: 24 Ht.: 5' 4

Home: Medina, N.Y.

College: South Florida

Turned Professional: 2024

Epson Tour Victories: 2 - Island Resort Championship, Guardian Championship

Player Notes: Green was born in Medina, New York, to Melissa and Ron Green, the latter a former college baseball outfielder. She began playing golf at age 5 and won her club championship at Shelridge CC in New York at age 12. While attending Medina High School, she earned five varsity letters, won two state championships, was named a 2019 AJGA Rolex Junior All-American, and qualified for the U.S. Women's Amateur and U.S. Women's Amateur Four-Ball in 2019. Green was recruited by and signed with the University of South Florida's women's golf team in 2019. At this time, she was the No. 1 recruit in the Class of 2020 out of New York. She was also ranked No. 25 in the Golfweek Junior Rankings and No. 31 in the Rolex AJGA rankings.

In her freshman season at South Florida, Green played in all five tournaments and was the Bulls' lowest scorer in three of them. She was also named to the AAC Women's Golf All-Conference and All-Academic teams. She finished that season tied for 4th in the conference tournament.

In the 2021-22 season, Green was named to the All-Conference team for a second season. She qualified for and finished 27th in the NCAA Regional as an individual. She also earned invitations to the U.S. Women's Open as an amateur (missed the cut) and the U.S. Women's Amateur (lost to Rachel Heck 5 & 3 in the Round of 64).

In the 2022-23 season, Green helped lead the Bulls to an NCAA Regional team appearance and a second straight individual appearance. She finished the season ranked 12th in the country, was named to the All-Conference team for a third year, and earned a WGCA All-American Honorable Mention, becoming the sixth South Florida Women's Golf team member to earn the honor and first since 1999.

In her senior season, Green finished the year ranked 23rd in the country, earning All-Conference team honors for the fourth straight year and being named to the WGCA All-American Second Team. Additionally, she was named the AAC Women's Golf Player of the Year and selected to Team USA for the 2024 Arnold Palmer Cup, all firsts for the Bulls.

On June 29, 2024, Green became the first American to win The Women's Amateur Championship in 28 years. The last to do it was Kelli Kuehne. Green made a birdie on two of her last three holes for a 2-up victory over Lorna McClymont of Scotland at Pormarnock.

This victory earned her a spot in the next two LPGA majors: the Amundi Evian Championship and the AIG Women's Open; she missed the cut in both events.

2025 Notes: In November 2024, Green announced her intentions to turn professional. She began playing on the Epson Tour in 2025 and finished 1st on the money list to earn her LPGA card for 2026. She was the Epson Tour Player of the Year and the Rookie of the Year, and was the first player to win both awards since Madelene Sagstrom did it in 2016. Her $186,986 set a tour record for winnings in one season. She won twice during the season, at the Island Resort Championship, part of a stretch of six top-10 finishes in seven starts, and also the Guardian Championship.

2026 Notes: In her rookie season on the LPGA Tour, she had her first top ten in her fourth start, T-9th at the JM Eagle LA Championship. Two weeks later was T-9th at the Mexico Riviera Maya Open.

LEONIE HARM

Birth Date: October 01, 1997

Birthplace: Stuttgart, Germany

Age: 28 Ht.: 5' 11

Home: Gerlingen, Germany

College: University of Houston

Turned Professional: 2020

LET Victory: 1 - 2026 Amundi German Masters

Player Notes: Leonie Harm was born and raised in Stuttgart, Germany. She picked up the game from her family's passion for golf at an early age. Her competitive nature made her establish herself among the best golfers of her nation in her age class. The continuous support of her home Golf Club St. Leon-Rot, gave her the resources and opportunities to be on track to become one of the best junior golfers in Europe.

Throughout her career, Harm competed on German National and Junior National Teams. She has represented Germany in multiple European Girls and Ladies Team Championships and represented Europe in the 2015 Junior Solheim Cup at her home course. She won the German Girls Championship at St. Leon-Rot, opening that tournament with a 65 and finishing with a 66. Finished 7th at the European Nations Cup. Placed 5th at the DGV-Deutsche Meisterschaften der Madchen AK at Hetzenhof after opening with a 68. Won the DGV Deutsche Meisterschaften AK Offten at Hardenberg Golf Resort. Finished 4th at the 2014 German International Amateur Championship with 72s in the final two rounds. She enjoyed eight top-20 finishes in 2014.

In May 2013, a 15-year-old Harm left her house in the morning to go jogging. She was hit by a drunk driver going 40 mph, leaving her in a coma with a broken hip, broken ankle, broken ribs, a collapsed lung, and head injuries, including permanent hearing loss in her right ear. Paramedics on the scene said that she had a one percent chance of survival, and Leonie admitted to herself that "I was pretty much dead." She returned to the golf course just six weeks after her accident. Less than one year later, her mother, who drove Leonie 65 miles each way four to five times a week from their home to practice at St. Leon Rot Golf Club, was diagnosed with breast cancer and passed away in 2016. Her hero in life is her older brother, Steffen.

She started her college career at the University of Houston in January 2016. During her seven competitive semesters in NCAA sports, she set multiple program records and claimed four more individual tournament titles, all while obtaining a Bachelor of Science Degree in Biochemical and Biophysical Sciences.

In the summer of 2018, she successfully reclaimed the German International Ladies' Amateur title just two weeks prior to the biggest win of her amateur career, the Women's Amateur Championship Championship. The world's oldest women's golf tournament, with 115 played, was won by a German for the first time. This exceptional win helped establish her amongst the top women's amateur golfers in the world with a World Amateur Golf Ranking as high as fourth, which is the best ranking to be held by any German amateur golfer so far, male or female. She won the 2018 German Women's Amateur.

In April 2019, she competed in the inaugural Augusta National Women's Amateur, missing the cut. She also tested the waters of being a professional golfer through her major debuts at the 2018 AIG Women's Open and the 2019 U.S. Women's Open. Further, she represented Team International at the 2019 Arnold Palmer Cup and Team Continent of Europe at the 2019 Vagliano Trophy, both of which ended in a dominant win on her side.

She turned pro in 2020 and, with limited status on the LET, played in 8 events, making 8 cuts. Best finish was T-17th at the Women's NSW Open. Finished the year in 49th spot on the Race to Costa del Sol and 7th in the prestigious Rookie of the Year standings.

2021 Notes: Played in 15 events to finish 22nd on the Race to Costa del Sol and ninth on the LET money list, with five top-tens. Started her LET season with a 2nd place finish at the Investec SA Women's Open. She was a shot back of winner Lee-Anne Pace. She was 3rd at the Tipsport Czech Ladies Open, 2 shots back of winner Atthaya Thitikul. Was 7th in the AIG Women's Open. She played in the Scandinavian Mixed event on the European men's tour and finished T-42nd.

2022 Notes: Leonie continued her improvement on the LET, finishing 16th on the Race to Costa del Sol, which included three top-10 and four top-20 results. Was 3rd at the Jabra Ladies Open. Finished 2nd at the Amundi German Masters, shooting 69-68 on the weekend to finish one back of winner Maja Stark.

2023 Notes: Played in 22 LET events, making 16 cuts with one top-ten finish. She was 74th in the order of merit and was 75th on the money list, earning €70,971. Best finish, T-8th at the ATS-H.K.

She competed in three USGA amateur championships: the 2011 and 2012 U.S. Girls' Junior Championship and the 2014 U.S. Women's Amateur Championship.

Finished with runner-up honors in the 2009 CN Future Links Quebec Championship and won the event one year later in 2010. At the age of 14, she became the youngest player ever to win a professional golf event on the Canadian Tour. In 2011, she won the Ontario Junior Girls' Championship and the CN Future Links Ontario Championship and finished T-3rd at the Ontario Women's Amateur Championship. In 2012, she won the Royale Cup Junior Girls Championship, the AJGA Ravenwood Junior Girls Championship, and the CN Canadian Women's Tour Quebec. She also recorded four other top-10 finishes: 2nd at the CN Future Links Ontario Championship, 3rd at the CN Future Links Pacific Championship, 5th at the Royale Cup Canadian Women's Amateur Championship, and T-7th at the CN Canadian Women's Tour BC. She finished T-18th at the 2012 World Amateur Team Championship while representing Canada. She played in two professional events in 2013, finishing 59th in the U.S. Women's Open and 35th in the Manulife Financial LPGA Classic. She won the South American Amateur Championship at the beginning of the year and won the Canadian Amateur Championship in July. Won the 2013 Canadian Women's Amateur. Began the 2014 season with two victories on the Florida Orange Blossom Tour, winning the Junior Orange Bowl and the South Atlantic Ladies Amateur Championship. Was runner-up at the Kraft Nabisco Championship.

2014 Notes: She won the Junior Orange Bowl International and the South Atlantic Amateur by four strokes. In May, she became the first Canadian to win the Scott Robertson Memorial tournament, beating Nelly Korda and Emily Campbell by one stroke at Roanoke Country Club. One week before the U.S. Women's Open, she won the Women's Porter Cup with a final-round bogey-free 62 at Niagara Falls Country Club in Lewiston, N.Y. She was 3rd in the Canadian Women's Amateur. She was defeated in the final of the U.S. Women's Amateur by Kristen Gillman, 2 up, at Nassau Country Club. Henderson was 3 up through 26 holes, but Gillman birdied five of the final 10 holes to come from behind. In October, she finished fourth in the World Junior Girls Championship at Ontario's Angus Glen G.C. She won the individual title at the Women's World Amateur Championship, and Canada was second in the team competition.

Henderson played at several professional events as an amateur. She was T-26th at the Kraft Nabisco, finishing at 1-over 289, one stroke behind Minjee Lee for low amateur honors. She was T-10th at the U.S. Women's Open at Pinehurst No. 2, to become the first amateur to finish in the top 10 at the Open since Mariajo Uribe in 2008. She made the cut in all four LPGA events she played, including the two majors, a T-45th at the Manulife Financial and a T-46th at the Canadian Women's Open. She won a Canadian Women's Tour event at Niagara Falls, Ontario, for her second title as an amateur after winning in Quebec in 2012 at age 14.

In August, the LPGA denied her petition to attend Q-School in an attempt to play the LPGA as a 17-year-old in 2015. She turned professional in December anyway, passing up a scholarship to attend the University of Florida, to which she gave a verbal commitment in 2014. She was No. 1 on the Women's World Amateur Golf Ranking when she turned pro.

2015 Notes: She won her professional debut at a Suncoast Series Tour event in Winter Garden, Fla. On her first LPGA Tour, she started as a professional, and she was T-33rd at the Pure Silk Bahamas LPGA. She was T-2nd on the Symetra Tour's Florida's Natural Charity Classic, two shots back of winner Sue Kim. Henderson was T-2nd with her sister, Brittany. She was 3rd at the Swinging Skirts LPGA Classic, one shot out of the playoff between Lydia Ko and Morgan Pressel. Henderson shot 65 Friday to take the lead, and she was the 54-hole leader, falling out with a final-round 74 and missing a 25-foot birdie try on the last hole that would have gotten her into the playoff. She was the 36-hole leader at the Volunteers of America North Texas Shootout after rounds of 69-65. She shot 71-73 on the weekend to fall to T-13th. She also finished T-5th in the KPMG Women's PGA Championship. The next week, after winning at the Symetra Tour's Four Winds Invitational, she was granted full membership into the LPGA's development tour. The next week, she was 3rd at the Island Resort Championship. She followed by finishing T-5th at the U.S. Women's Open. A month later, she was a Monday qualifier at the Cambia Portland Open and won by eight shots to become the third-youngest champion in LPGA history at 17 years, 11 months, and 6 days. Henderson closed with a 3-under 69 at Columbia Edgewater to finish at 21-under 267, the lowest total since the event went from 54 holes to 72 in 2013. Her eight-stroke winning margin was the largest in the history of the event and the biggest on the LPGA Tour since Jiyai Shin won the 2012 AIG Women's Open by nine shots. Henderson was the Tour's first Canadian-born winner since Lorie Kane won the 2001 Takefuji Classic. She was the first Monday qualifier to win since Laurel Kean won the 2000 Rail Classic. After the victory, LPGA Commissioner Mike Whan granted her LPGA Tour status. Officially, Henderson finished the year 90th on the money list and 96th in CME points, but if all of her earnings for the year counted toward the money list, she would have been 18th with $762,112. Her official total was $100,294. She made 13 cuts in 14 starts.

2016 Notes: Played in 31 LPGA events, making 30 cuts, and had 15 top-10 finishes. She won twice at the KPMG Women's PGA (beating Lydia Ko in a playoff) and the Cambia Portland Classic. She won the KPMG Women's PGA Championship at the age of 18 years, 9 months, and 2 days, becoming the second youngest player in LPGA history to win a major championship. She was second at the COATES Golf Championship, two back of the winner Ha Na Jang. This started a streak in which she was in the top 10 in eight straight events, ending the streak by finishing T-19th at the Volunteers of America Texas Shootout.

She finished 3rd on the money list with $1,724,420 in earnings and 3rd in CME points. She was T-7th in the Rio Olympics as a member of Canada's women's golf team. Henderson was in medal contention after a second-round 64, but a third-round 75 dropped her back. She finished two shots back of bronze medalist Shanshan Feng.

2017 Notes: Played in 30 LPGA events, making 28 cuts. She finished in the top 10 eight times and was 6th on the LPGA money list. She won the Meijer Classic, shooting 17-under 263 for a two-shot win over Michelle Wie and Lexi Thompson. One day after winning the Meijer Classic, she traveled to Rhode Island for the CVS Charity Classic and teamed with host Billy Andrade and Keegan Bradley to win the tournament. She won the McKayson New Zealand Women's Open, shooting four sub-par rounds to beat Jing Yan by 5 for her second LPGA win of the year and 5th career win. Henderson finished second at the KPMG Women's PGA Championship, a shot back of winner Danielle Kang.

2018 Notes: Played in 28 LPGA events, making 25 cuts with 11 top-ten finishes. She won the Lotte Championship for her sixth LPGA title, shooting 12-under 276 to beat Azahara Munoz by 4 shots. It was Henderson's fourth straight year with a victory. Later in the year won the CP Women's Open by 3 shots over Angel Yin. Her seventh win puts her a win back of Sandra Post (8 wins) for most by a Canadian. Henderson also became the first Canadian to win the CP Women's Open since Jocelyne Bourassa in 1973. Also was T-2nd at the HSBC Women's Champions, 1 back of winner Michelle Wie, and 3rd at the Marathon Classic, a shot back of the Suwannapura/Lincicome playoff. She was 4th at the rain-shortened Kingsmill Championship, one shot out of the playoff won by Ariya Jutanugarn. She was forced to withdraw from the U.S. Women's Open when her grandfather died on May 31st. Later in the summer, her other grandfather passed away. Henderson teamed with Keegan Bradley and Billy Andrade to win the CVS Charity Classic, an unofficial mixed-team competition pairing players from the PGA, LPGA, and Champions tours at Rhode Island CC in June. Henderson won $1,473,247 for the year, ranking her 4th and 2nd in the Race to CME.

2019 Notes: Played in 27 LPGA Tour events, making 23 cuts with 13 top-ten finishes. She was 4th on the money list with $1,696,017 and 2nd on the CME points list. She won the Lotte Championship for the 2nd year in a row. Henderson shot 16-under 272 to win by four shots over Eun-Hee Ji. Finished T-2nd at the Pure Silk Championship 2 shots back of winner Bronte Law. She won the Meijer LPGA Classic by a shot over Nasa Hataoka, Brittany Altomare, Lex Thompson, and Su Oh. It was her 9th LPGA victory, breaking Sandra Post's record for most wins by a Canadian player.

2020 Notes: Played in 10 LPGA Tour events, making nine cuts with six top-ten finishes. Was 10th on the money list with $648,604 and 15th on the CME points list. Started the season with a T-4th finish at the Diamond Resorts Tournament of Champions. After skipping the Australian swing before the break for COVID-19, Henderson didn't play golf for seven months before returning to the LPGA Tour at the AIG Women's Open, missing the cut. She spent the time cooking and reading books, it was the longest break she had taken from the game. She finished 2nd at the ANA Inspiration, losing a playoff to Mirim Lee, who made a birdie on the first extra hole. She ended the year with a T-7th finish at the CME Group Tour Championship; it was the first time she played a season without a victory in five years.

2021 Notes: Played in 23 LPGA events, making 21 cuts with seven top-10 finishes. She was 14th on the LPGA money list with $1,039,776 and 8th on the CME points list. It was the first time in a full season on Tour that she did not finish in the top 10 in earnings, but she did get back into the winner's circle for the first time since 2019 with a win at the Hugel Air Premia LA Open for her 10th LPGA victory. Henderson became the first player from Canada to win 10 times on either the LPGA or PGA Tours. She shot a final-round 67 to pass third-round leader Jessica Korda and win by one stroke with a 16-under 268. Henderson won in dramatic fashion on the last hole. With Korda close to the hole with an assumed birdie, Henderson missed the green but chipped to two feet for the par that secured the win. Henderson qualified for the Tokyo Olympics as a member of Canada's women's golf team and finished T-29 in the Games. She was T-2 at the ShopRite Classic, one back of winner Celine Boutier after shooting a final-round 64.

Then she claimed her 12th LPGA win and second major at the Evian Championship. Henderson led by two shots through 54 holes after opening 64-64-68. She survived a four-putt early in the final round to birdie the 18th for a 71 and a one-shot victory over Sophia Schubert. Finished T-7th at the AIG AIG Women's Open, four shots back of the Ashleigh Buhai/In Gee Chun playoffs. She was T-2nd at the Aramco Team Series New York on the LET, finishing three back of winner Lexi Thompson. She was T-7th in the season-ending CME Group Tour Championship.

2023 Notes: Played in 24 LPGA Tour events, making 19 cuts with three top-ten finishes. She was 14th on the money list with $1,609,841 in earnings and was 15th in CME points. She didn't know what kind of a start to the season she had after spending the offseason rehabbing a back injury. In the weeks before the season-opening Hilton Grand Vacations Tournament of Champions, Henderson had her wisdom teeth removed and changed her equipment. So it was a bit of a surprise that she won the TofC wire-to-wire for a four-shot win over Maya Stark and Charley Hull. She finished 2nd at the Amundi Evian Championship, six shots back of the winner, Celine Boutier. She was T-6th at the Maybank Championship, four shots back of the Celine Boutier/At-thaya Thitikul playoff. In the season-ending CME Group Tour Championship was 12th.

Women's Open, her first victory in two and a half years. She shot a final-round 67 at Mississauga G&CC in her home province of Ontario to win her country's national championship for the second time. Ended the season T-7th at the CME Group Tour Championship.

2026 Notes: Finished 3rd in the Hilton Grand Vacations Tournament of Champions, in her final event with sister Brittany as her caddie. ## ALICE HEWSON

Birth Date: August 19, 1997

Birthplace: Hemel Hempstead, England

Age: 28 Ht.: 5' 9

Home: Berkhamsted, England

College: Clemson

Turned Professional: 2019

LET Victories: 2 - 2020 Investec South African Women's Open, VP Bank Swiss Ladies Open

Player Notes: Hewson grew up in Berkhamsted, Hertfordshire. At the age of six, she started playing golf with her Dad and played in her first tournament on her seventh birthday. She won the England U13 championships and was on the National U18 team at age 15. Her first GB&I cap came at age 15 in the Junior Vagliano Trophy, and she played in three Vagliano Trophies. She also represented Great Britain & Ireland in the Curtis Cup in 2016 and 2018 and the Astor Trophy.

Hewson represented England twice at the European Girls' Team Championship and five times at the European Ladies' Team Championship. She was the only player in both England teams to win the European Ladies' Team Championships consecutively in 2016 and 2017.

Hewson attended Clemson University from 2015 to 2019 and majored in accounting. She won her first two tournaments as a freshman and held 49 records by the time she graduated.

She played in the inaugural Augusta National Women's Amateur in 2019 and finished T10 with an even-par score. Also, in 2019, she captured the European Ladies Amateur Championship. She scored two eagles coming from seven shots behind in the final round to win in a five-hole playoff. The win qualified for her first major, the 2019 AIG Women's Open, played at Woburn Golf and Country Club, less than 30 minutes from her home. She missed the cut and soon after turned pro.

2020 Notes: Hewson finished 5th at LET Q-School at La Manga Club and started her LET career with a win in her first event, the Investec South African Women's Open at Westlake Golf Club in Cape Town in mid-March. The 22-year-old came from three shots behind Olivia Cowan to win by a shot. Unfortunately, it was the last tournament played before the COVID-19 pandemic caused a global halt. To keep sharp during the lockdown, she played in the Rose Ladies Series, where she won the Grand Final with scores of 67 and 70 and was ahead of seasoned campaigners and Solheim Cup stars such as Charley Hull and Georgia Hall. When the lockdown was lifted, playing in her second LET as a pro at the ASI Ladies Scottish Open, she finished T-39th. She played in a total of eight LET events during the year and finished the season 18th at the Andalucia Open De Espana. She was 11th on the Race to Costa del Sol and second on the Rookie of the Year standings.

2021 notes: Played in 17 LET events, making 16 cuts with five top-10 finishes. She was 8th in the Race to Costa del Sol and 10th in earnings. Best finishes were a pair of thirds. ## JIN HEE IM

Birth Date: May 24, 1998

Birthplace: Jeju-do, South Korea

Age: 28 Ht.: 5' 4

Home: Guri, South Korea

Turned Professional: 2016

Joined LPGA Tour: 2024

LPGA Tour Playoff Record: 1-1

LPGA Tour Victories: 1 - 2025 Dow Championship

Korean LPGA Victories: 6 - 2021 BC Card Hankyung Ladies Cup, 2022 McCol Mona Park Open, 2023 NH Investment & Securities Championship, Jeju Sarndasoo Masters, Sangsangin-Hankyung TV Open, SK Shieldus - SK Telecom Championship

Player Notes: Jin Hee Im started playing golf in high school, which is very late for a player who ended up playing professional golf.

She has competed on the KLPGA since 2018, making 107 cuts in 133 starts with 29 top-10 finishes and six wins. Four of those wins came in 2023, with her most recent victory at the SK Telecom Championship. In those 133 starts, she earned 2,189,439,948 won (USA$1,603,282).

She turned pro in 2016 and played in the minor leagues for two years, qualifying for the KLPGA in 2018. For the next few years, Im toiled in relative obscurity. She only finished 64th on the money list in her rookie season and 84th in 2019. In 2020, she played just three events.

But in 2021, she finally turned things around and started her ascent to the top of the Korean LPGA. She played in 27 Korean events and made the cut in 21 starts. She had six top tens and finished 22nd on the money list, making 312 million won (USA$228,397). She collected her first win at the BC Card Hankyung Ladies Cup, which secured her a card.

2022 Notes: It was an even better year for Im. She made 28 Korean Tour starts, making 24 cuts. She had 8 top tens and another win, this time at the McCol Mona Park Open, where she held off hard-charging rookie Ina Yoon. She also had a runner-up finish and a third. She made 538 million won (USA$393,805), good for 14th on the money list.

2023 Notes: Her momentum exploded in 2023, and she went from a talented player to one of Korea's best women's players. She became one of the few in tour history to break a billion won in a season, collecting 1.145 billion won (USA$838,785) and finishing second on the money list. She was also second in the Player of the Year race and third in scoring average. Most impressively, she grabbed four wins during the year (NH Investment & Securities Championship, Jeju Sarndasoo Masters, Sangsangin-Hankyung TV Open, SK Shieldus - SK Telecom Championship), the most of anyone on tour. She had 13 total top tens, tying for the most in the league. Her world ranking moved up to 40th by the end of the year. She decided the time was right to take a crack at the LPGA, and she had made just two starts on the LPGA Tour, finishing T61st at the 2021 BMW Ladies Championship and T-20th at the 2020 ISPS Handa Vic Open. So, she entered the LPGA Q-Series in the fall. She struggled but hung tough and finished T-17th, earning one of the final full cards for the 2024 season.

2024 Notes: Played in 24 LPGA Tour events, making 21 cuts with six top-ten finishes. She was 18th on the money list with $1,377,818 in earnings and was 31st in CME Points. She got her first top-ten finish at the Chevron Championship, finishing 8th in her rookie year. The next week, at the JM Eagle LA Championship, she shot a third-round 63, but she stumbled on Sunday, shooting 72 to finish T-4th, seven shots back of the winner, Hannah Green. Was T-10th at the AIG Women's Open. T-9th at the Kroger Queen City Championship and T-8th at the BMW Ladies Championship. Was T-2nd at the Annika Driven by Gainbridge, three shots back of the winner, Nelly Korda. It was her first runner-up finish. Im finished second in the Rookie of the Year race to Mao Saigo.

2025 Notes: Played in 27 LPGA Tour events, making 23 cuts with five top-ten finishes. She was 16th on the CME Points list and 22nd on the money list with $1,389,520 in earnings. Started the season with a pair of T-4th finishes at the Founders Cup and HSBC Women's Championship. Was T-5th at the ShipRIte Classic, five shots back of the winner, Jennifer Kupcho. Im teamed with Somi Lee to win the Dow Championship team event, beating Lexi Thompson and Megan Khang on the first playoff hole. They won when Lee made her team's 8-foot birdie putt for the win on the first extra hole, while Khang missed her team's 5-foot birdie putt. Finished T-5th at the FM Championship and ended the season with a T-13th finish at the CME Group Tour Championship.

2026 Notes: She was T-3rd in the Fortinet Founders Cup, five back of winner Hyo Joo Kim. Finished T-2nd at the JM Eagle LA Championship, losing in a playoff to Hannah Green. Im was penalized a shot for slow play on Saturday but shot 67 in the final round to get into the playoff. She teamed with Somi Lee to finish T-3 in the Dow Championship in defense of their 2025 title. Shot a final round 65 to finish T-4th at the Amundi Evian Championship, four shots back of the Haeran Ryu/Brooke M. Henderson playoff.

Was the medalist at the 2012 LPGA Q-School, giving her full access to the LPGA Tour in 2013.

2013 Notes: She had five top-5 finishes in five LPGA starts in a season shortened by surgery to repair a torn labrum in her right shoulder, suffered when she fell at Locust Hill during a practice round for the Wegmans LPGA Championship. She was 2nd at the 2013 Honda LPGA Thailand. Jutanugarn made a triple bogey on the last hole, missing a 3-foot putt for a double bogey that would have gotten her into a playoff. She led by three shots going to the final hole and lost by one to Inbee Park. Also had a 3rd at the LOTTE Championship, T-3rd at Jingoish, and T-4th at the Mobile Bay LPGA.

2014 Notes: Despite the surgery on her right shoulder, the pain continued throughout the year. She made eight cuts in 10 starts and was 16th at the Lotte Championship. Won the Rolex Player of the Year by 20 points over Ko to become the second-youngest winner in the 50-year history of the award, trailing only Ko in 2015. She qualified for the Rio Olympics as a member of Thailand's women's golf team and withdrew after two rounds with a left knee injury.

Jutanugarn spent two weeks at No. 1 before So Yeon Ryu surpassed her with a Walmart NW Arkansas Championship win. She won the season-ending CME Group Championship by a shot over Lexi Thompson and Jessica Korda for her second win of the year. Jutanugarn shot 15-under 273 and won after making a 15-foot birdie putt on the last hole, while a few minutes earlier, Thompson missed a 2-foot par putt that would have forced an eventual playoff. She was T-3rd in the Women's Australian Open, four back of the winner Ha Na Jang. Was runner-up in the HSBC Women's Champions in Singapore, one back of the winner Inbee Park. She had her second straight runner-up finish with a T-2nd at the Bank of Hope Founders Cup, where she was two shots back from winner Anna Nordqvist. Earned her third runner-up finish of the season at the Lorena Ochoa Match Play, losing in the final to Sei Young Kim, 1 up, in the consolation match.

After a birdie on 16, she finished bogey-bogey to fall into a tie with Hyo Joo Kim. The pair were tied again after the two-hole aggregate playoff, and Jutanugarn won on the 4th playoff hole (the second in sudden death) with a par from a greenside bunker as Kim made a bogey. She also won the Aberdeen Standard Investments Ladies Scottish Open for her third victory of the year and the 10th of her LPGA career. She shot 13-under 271 to beat Minjee Lee by one shot.

When sister Moriya won the Hugel JTBC LA Open, Ariya and Moriya joined Annika and Charlotta Sorenstam as the only sister pair to win on the LPGA Tour. She was a member of Thailand's team in the UL International Crown and was 3-1-0 in the matches, including a singles win over Sung Hyun Park, 2 and 1. 2021 Notes: Played in 23 LPGA Tour events, making 20 cuts with seven top-10s and two wins. She was eighth on the money list with $1,260,430 and 6th in CME points. After not winning in almost three years (2018 Kingsmill), she picked up a win in her native country at the Honda LPGA Thailand. Ariya shot a final-round 63 to finish at 22 under par for a one-shot win over Atthaya Thitikul. Trailing by one in the 18th fairway when there was a one-hour rain delay, she came back to birdie 18 while Thitikul bogeyed 17. After the victory, she told the media that she had been struggling with her game and had almost quit. Finished 3rd at the Bank of Hope LPGA Match Play. She lost to Ally Ewing 3 & 2 in the semifinals, but was awarded the consolation match by Shanshan Feng. The next week, she was T-7th at the U.S. Women's Open. She was T-2nd in the Chevron Championship, losing in a playoff to Mao Saigo, who made birdie on the first extra hole. Jutanugarn could have won in regulation if not for almost whiffing on a chip attempt from just off the green, her ball moving only three inches and leading to a bogey on the hole that dropped her into the tie and the playoff. Was T-6th at the Black Desert Championship, T-9th at the U.S. Women's Open, T-7th at the Amundi Evian Championship and T-8th at the ISPS HANDA Women's Scottish Open. Japan LPGA Victory: 2012 Suntory Ladies Open

Player Notes: Kim began playing golf at age 6 when her parents wanted to send her to a taekwondo academy, but a friend who owned a driving range convinced them to have her play golf instead.

As a 14-year-old amateur in 2009, Kim played well at two KLPGA major championships. At the Hite Cup, she was one of the leaders after the first round and was 5th as late as the start of the fourth round. At that point, she stumbled somewhat but still finished T-13th. At the KB Star Tour Grand Final, she was again in the top five after the first round but ended up T-34th.

In 2010, she led Korea to a victory at the Queen Sirikit Cup. She also won individual honors thanks to a final-round 65. She was eight shots ahead of the next player in the field. Later in the year, she finished T-3rd at the Rush & Cash Charity Classic on the KLPGA tour.

In July of 2010, she won the R&A Junior Open Girls golf title in Fife, Scotland, by three shots; Korean New Zealander Cecilia Cho was third.

In 2011, she was again on Korea's squad for the Queen Sirikit Cup. She finished second, one shot out of the gold medal spot, but Korea won the team gold by four shots. Later in the year, she achieved a major coup by claiming the Callaway Junior World Golf Championship, winning the 15-17-year-old division by five shots.

On the Korean LPGA tour in 2011, she finished T-5th at the Woori Investment & Securities Ladies Championship. She led the Korean Women's Open after the first and second rounds, but a poor weekend reduced her to 15th. She also had a 9th at the Lotte Mart Women's Open and a T-20th at the Hite Cup, the year's third major. At the end of 2011, Kim triumphed at the Junior Orange Bowl in Florida, making a birdie on the last hole to secure the title.

2012 Notes: At the first KLPGA event, the Lotte Mart Women's Open. Kim got off to a hot start, shooting a 66 to take a share of the first-round lead. She shot the best round of the day on Friday as well, a 67, and had a seven-stroke lead by day's end. By the middle of Saturday, she had built her lead to 10 but then fell back to a six-stroke lead by day's end. She finished the week with another 66, easily topping a field of top KLPGA pros. She had a nine-shot win over second-place Hyun Hee Moon, 13 strokes over KLPGA Player of the Year Ha Neul Kim, who finished 3rd. Only Se Ri Pak had ever had a more dominating KLPGA win while still an amateur. A few months later, she played her first JLPGA event, the Suntory Ladies Open. Trailing by four going into the final round, she shot a final-round 61, the lowest score ever shot on the Japanese tour, to claim a four-shot win. She became the youngest winner, at 16, in JLPGA history, breaking the record once held by Japanese legend Ai Miyazato. Her wins in Korea and Japan started a bidding war among sponsors, all eager to become her main sponsor whenever she turned pro.

Kim had brilliant results on the LPGA in 2012 as well. The week after her win in Korea, she played Lotte's LPGA event and finished 12th. She had top-25 finishes at two other LPGA events. But it was the remaining event she played that was truly special. Invited to the Evian Masters, Kim contended all week and had a shot at winning even with just a few holes to go; she finished T-4th. She would go on to win another pro event in Taiwan for her third professional win as an amateur in less than six months.

Kim was the medalist in stroke play at the 2012 U.S. Women's Amateur but lost in the second round of match play. Her final amateur event was the Women's World Amateur Team Championship, where she led Korea to repeat the team title and finished 4th in the individual rankings. Kim then turned pro in October and signed a deal with Lotte, the company whose event she had won back in April.

2013 Notes: She finished 13th at the Swinging Skirts. The following week, she dueled with two-time champion Hye Youn Kim at the Hyundai China Ladies Open, capturing the title when Kim double-bogeyed the final hole. It had taken Kim just two events as a KLPGA member (just two months after turning pro) to notch her first win, the fastest a player had ever gotten a KLPGA win after turning pro in the tour's history. As expected, Hyo Joo had a fantastic rookie year on the KLPGA tour. As it turned out, she had a massive battle for Rookie of the Year with another talented teen, In Gee Chun, but in the end, Kim prevailed. She also won the title for lowest scoring average in 2013, finishing 4th on the money list and 2nd in the Player of the Year contest. She notched 14 top 10s and six top 20s while missing just one cut and wound up making 464 million won ($417,756). Besides her win, her best finishes were a T-2nd just a shot behind Mirim Lee at the KG Edaily Ladies Open, a runner-up to Bo Kyung Kim at the El Charity

Open, a final round tussle with In Gee Chun (which Chun won) at the Korean Women's Open (Hyo Joo finished 6th), another runner-up to Ha Neul Kim at the MBN Kim Young Joo Golf Women's Open, a 4th at the year's second major, the KLPGA Championship, and a 3rd at the year's 4th major. In addition, Kim was also tied for the Player of the Year award with one event to go, but finished just one shot behind Ha Na Jang in that final event to lose that award by the barest of margins.

Kim also played in two LPGA events in 2013. The better result came at her sponsor's tournament, the Lotte Championship. Paired with fellow teen sensations Ariya Jutanugarn and Lydia Ko, Kim played well. She climbed fairly high after three rounds before a disappointing final round left her tied with Ko in 9th place.

2014 Notes: Kim had seven worldwide wins in 2014, including the Evian Championship at age 19 in her ninth LPGA start. She won the 2014 Korean LPGA Tour five times, including the Korean Women's Open. She was the Tour's money leader and player of the year. In December, she added a win at the Hyundai China Women's Open, the first event on the 2015 Korean LPGA Tour. Not an LPGA member in 2014, she finished in the top 10 in all four LPGA starts. She shot 61 in the first round of the Evian Championship, the lowest round in major championship history, and made a 12-foot birdie putt on the last hole of the tournament to win by one shot over Karrie Webb. Kim became the third-youngest major champion in LPGA history at 19 years and 2 months. Morgan Pressel at 18 years, 10 months, and nine days at the 2007 ANA Inspiration and Lexi Thompson (19 years, one month, 27 days) at the 2014 ANA Inspiration were younger. The win came in her ninth career appearance on the LPGA. She was tied for the lead at the Lotte Championship midway through the final round but made bogeys on Nos. 16 and 17 to finish 4th with a Sunday 71-278, four shots back of winner Michelle Wie.

Jutanugarn won on the fourth playoff hole (and second of sudden death) after getting up and down from a greenside bunker while Kim made a bogey. Kim finished the year 25th on the money list with $753,439 and was 64th in the Race to CME.

MINSOL KIM

Birth Date: June 16, 2006

Birthplace: South Korea

Age: 20 Ht.: 5'8

Home: South Korea

Turned Professional: 2024

Player Notes: Minsol Kim has rocketed up the Rolex Women's World Rankings thanks to her outstanding rookie season on the Korean LPGA Tour. With three victories to her name already, including in the Mercedes-Benz Korea Women's Open in June 2026, the opening major of the KLPGA Tour season, Minsol is now ranked 14th in the world.

At just 20, she leads the Korean LPGA Tour in many of the main categories, including Player of the Year points, Rookie of the Year points, prize money and scoring average.

This is a bio written by the website "SeoulSisters.Com"

Minsol Kim first started to get notice as a teen amateur in 2022. That year she played in her debut US Women's Open (she missed the cut), and notched several top fives at important Amateur events in Korea, including a 3rd at the Korea Women's Amateur. She won several events after that, then was invited to play at the LPGA's BMW Championship, where she finished T-10th.

Shortly thereafter she qualified for the Korean amateur national team. The Women's Amateur Asia-Pacific Championship in March was her coming out party; televised throughout the Pacific rim countries, her length off the tee and all-around excellence left the Aussie commentators agog. In the end, Kim finished 2nd behind the Thai player Eila Galitzky.

In June, 2023, Kim played the Korea Women's Open and wound up in contention for the title. She finished 4th. She also managed a 9th at the KLPGA's We've Championship, and a 5th at the OK Financial Group Open.

But it was as a member of the Korean National team that Kim made the most noise. She played on the Queen Sirikit team, one of three teenagers representing Korea in this event pitting Asian national teams against one another. Korea got the win there for the first time in several years; Kim finished 6th in the individual standings. A more impressive week came at the Esprito Santo Cup; this is a biennial national team event that Korea had not managed to win since the days Hye Jin Choi was on the team, but they claimed it in 2023 with a team that had Minsol, Hyo Song Lee and Kyo Rim Seo. It was the 4th win in the past seven cups for Korea.

Minsol and Hyo Song Lee were also on the Asian Games team for Korea. This is an event that takes place only every four years, and for the first time, pros were allowed to play. The Koreans had three teenaged amateurs, and their opponents included world #2 Ruoning Yin on the Chinese team. But Kim and the Koreans hung tough, even after one of the teammates fell ill, and ended up finishing second in the team event, winning the silver medal. Kim finished 6th individually as well. Korea was the only team to medal without having a pro on their roster.

Minsol and Lee capped their years by being one of the teams (and only amateur squad) to represent Korea at the Simone Cup in Indonesia. Once again they were brilliant, and their team tied for second with the team of KLPGA star rookies Min Byeol Kim and Youmin Hwang. Kim also finished tied for fourth in the individual standings with Lee and Thai rival Galitzky.

Kim had some early highlights in 2024; she played the Asia Pacific Amateur again, managing a solid 5th place finish. She played in the first domestic KLPGA event of the season, the Doosan E&C We've Championship, and finished tied for 8th. She later finished T-32nd at the Korea Women's Open. But her big pro moment came at the Kyochon 1991 Ladies Open in early May. She quickly put herself on the leaderboard, and it took a spectacular final round from Ji Young Park to prevent Kim from winning; she finished 2nd.

Kim turned pro on the second of July and soon started playing on the Dream Tour. She played a number of tournaments but only finished 93rd on the money list. So she went to Qualifying School at the end of the year but did not earn a card for the KLPGA.

In 2025, it did not take Minsol long to make a big impression. She quickly dominated the Dream Tour, winning four events by summer and taking over the lead on the money list. But she didn't even have to wait until the end of the year to earn her tour card, because she was brilliant when playing KLPGA events, too. In fact, in her first event of the year, in the very first round, she shot a 64 to take a big lead. She didn't win that event, but she continued to do well in the following events she played. In August, she played the Mediheal and contended, eventually finishing third. That earned her a spot in the following week's field, and she took advantage. At the BC Card, she opened the week with a 62 and remained in the lead over the next two rounds. In the final round, Da Yeon Lee rallied and it looked like Kim's luck had run out. But Kim went birdi—birdie-eagle on the final three holes to grab her first KLPGA title and a full KLPGA card.

Had she won even one more Dream Tour event, she would have set the record for most wins on that tour in a season, but her KLPGA win instantly moved her to the big leagues. She did not play enough in 2025 to be considered a true rookie (she needed to play 50% of the events to do that), but she still had an excellent effort. In just ten counting events (her initial win and all events before that did not count), she had an additional win and four top tens. She accumulated 338 million won, finishing 34th on the money list, but if her first win and other events played before that counted, she would have earned 600 million won. Even with her limited schedule, she still earned more rookie points than official Rookie of the Year Kyo Rim Seo.

Minsol started 2026 with a T-17th at the LET's Saudi Ladies International. As an official rookie on the KLPGA at last, everyone expects big things from the teenage star.

Playing for the first time in
the AIG Women’s Open.

Player Notes: She began playing golf at 11 years old and credits her uncle for introducing her to the sport. Her father is a taekwondo grand master and would take Kim to a driving range. When she's not playing golf, Sei Young enjoys participating in taekwondo. She says her most memorable golf experience is when she was down six strokes with 10 holes to play at the Hanhwa Classics in 2013 and made an eagle on the ninth hole and a hole-in-one on the 17th hole to force a playoff, which she then went on to win.

2013 is the year Sei Young burst onto the scene on the KLPGA. She registered multiple victories, including the 2013 LotteMart Ladies Open, the 2013 Hanhwa Classic (which she came from six strokes back with 10 holes to play), and the 2013 KLPGA Players Championship. Kim was also awarded the KLPGA Popularity Award and finished 2nd on the money list that year.

2014 Notes: She made three cuts in five starts on the LPGA Tour, including a T-46th at the U.S. Women's Open and a T-61st at the ANA Inspiration. She won twice on the Korean LPGA (Woori Investment & Securities Ladies Championship, MBN Ladies Open with ONOFF) and was 10th on the money list. She led the Korean LPGA in driving distance for the second straight year. She finished T-6th at LPGA Q school to earn her LPGA card for 2015.

2015 Notes: She joined the LPGA Tour because she felt it would help her make the 2016 Korean Olympic team. She made the best of it, playing in 27 events and making 25 cuts. She finished 4th on the money list and 6th in the CME points. She won three times and had 11 top-10 finishes, which got her LPGA Rookie of the Year honors. She won the Pure Silk Bahamas LPGA Classic for her first LPGA victory in her eighth start. She shot 14-under 278 to tie Ariya Jutanugarn and Sun Young Yoo and then made a birdie putt on the first playoff hole to win. She won for a second time in incredible fashion, holing out from 154 yards for an eagle on the first playoff hole at the LOTTE Championship to beat Inbee Park. They had tied at 11-under 277 when Kim chipped in from the fringe on the 18th hole to tie. She also finished 2nd at the KPMG Women's PGA Championship, five shots back of winner Inbee Park, and T-4th at the ANA Inspiration, 2 back of the Lincicome-Lewis playoff. She won her third LPGA title of 2015 at the Blue Bay LPGA in China, making a seven-foot birdie putt on the last hole to finish at two-under 286 and beat Kim Kaufman, Stacy Lewis, and Candie Kung by one stroke.

2016 Notes: Played in 25 LPGA events, making 21 cuts and finishing in the top ten 9 times. She started her year T-2nd at the Pure Silk Bahamas LPGA Classic in defense of her 2015 title, finishing two back of winner Hyo Joo Kim. A week later, she was T-3rd at the COATES Golf Championship, 3 back of winner Ha Na Jang. Ko was known for finishing runner-up to fellow Korean golfer Inbee Park in the 2015 Women's British Open after losing a three-shot lead on the inward nine of the Ailsa Course at Trump Turnberry. Ko famously met her caddie, a local young man, the day before the Open and had never played links golf before. But that was a distant memory when she won the 2019 ANA Inspiration and months later, the Evian Championship.

Jin Young Ko was one of the top amateur golfers in Korea as a teenager. After turning pro in 2013, she went on the Korea Developmental Tour.

In the semifinals, she beat the then second-ranked amateur in the world, Ariya Jutanugarn, and then beat American Jaye Marie Green in the final, 2 and 1. Ko became the second-youngest champion in history, behind Kimberly Kim.

Two weeks later on Aug. 26, 2012, Ko became the youngest-ever winner of an LPGA Tour event at the CN Canadian Women's Open with a score of 275 (-13). She was 15 years and 4 months old at the time. The youngest previous winner on the LPGA Tour was Lexi Thompson at 16 years and 7 months in September 2011. Ko's win also made her only the fifth amateur to have won an LPGA Tour event and the first in over 43 years, when JoAnne Carner, age 29, won the Burdine's Invitational in Florida with an even-par 216 in January 1969. The 2012 CN Canadian Women's Open was a 72-hole event with a purse of $2 million; the winner's share of $300,000 went to the runner-up, Inbee Park, three shots back.

In 2012, played a total of four events, along with her CN Canadian Women's Open win, finished T-17th at the AIG Women's Open, T-19th in ISPS Handa Australian Open, and T-39th in the U.S. Women's Open.

2013 Notes: Started the year playing as an amateur and turned pro in October. Was granted membership for the 2014 season by LPGA Commissioner Mike Whan. Early in the year, she won the New Zealand Women's Open for her third professional win. On the LPGA Tour, she played 11 events as an amateur and, after turning pro in October, finished T-21st at the CME Group Titleholders, making her first check of $16,063.

She made quite an impact in the 11 events as an amateur, first by defending her CN Canadian Women's title. She was also runner-up at the Evian Championship, 3rd at the ISPS Handa Women's Australian Open, and T-4th at the Walmart NW Arkansas Championship. For the year, she had six top-10 finishes. Two months after turning professional, she won her first event as a pro at the Swinging Skirts World Ladies Masters on the Korean Ladies Professional Golf Association Tour. Paired with Inbee Park and So Yeon Ryu in the final group on the final day, she outplayed them both to take the trophy, with Ryu second and Park third.

2014 Notes: Won Rookie of the Year (the youngest in Tour history), she won three times and had two runner-up finishes with 15 top-10s. She won for the second time in 2014 at the Marathon Classic in Toledo with a final-round 65, including a birdie on the 18th hole, to come from behind and beat So Yeon Ryu by one shot. Her third win came at the CME Group Tour Championship when she beat Carlota Ciganda and Julieta Granada in a playoff. Ko had clinched the $1,000,000 Race to the CME Globe points bonus before the playoff began, as she only needed to finish 4th to secure the bonus. The tournament win was worth an additional $500,000, giving her the largest payday in women's golf. She was 2nd in the Ladies European Tour Handa New Zealand Women's Open, losing by one shot to Mi Hyang Lee, who shot a final-round course record 63 at Clearwater CC in Christchurch. She was the 54-hole leader at the Founders Cup, then shot 70 Sunday to finish T-2nd, one shot back of Karrie Webb, who passed her after shooting 63. She was T-2nd at the Walmart NW Arkansas Championship, one shot back of Lewis.

2015 Notes: Ko won five LPGA events in 2015 and six tournaments overall, becoming the youngest No. 1 player in the history of the Rolex Rankings and the youngest to win a major championship. She is the youngest to reach 10 wins on the LPGA Tour (at 18 years, 6 months, and 1 day), breaking Nancy Lopez's record (22y/2m/5d) by nearly three and a half years. She won the LPGA money title and the CME points title and was the Rolex LPGA Player of the Year. Ko was T-2nd at the season-opening COATES Golf Championship. She finished one shot back of Na Yeon Choi. She led until the 71st hole, when she made a double bogey to fall out of the lead. She made a birdie on the second playoff hole to win the Swinging Skirts title over Morgan Pressel after they tied at eight-under 280. It was Ko's second LPGA title of the year and the seventh of her career, and it came two days after her 18th birthday. She won the Canadian Pacific Women's Open for the third time and the first as a professional, beating Stacy Lewis on the first hole of a sudden-death playoff after they tied at 12-under 276 at Vancouver GC. It was her third LPGA win of 2015. She won her fourth LPGA title (and second LET title) and her first major at the Evian Championship, shooting 16-under 268 to beat Lexi Thompson by six. Ko shot 63 in the final round to become the youngest major winner in LPGA history at 18 years, 142 days, breaking Morgan Pressel's record by nearly six months. Her fifth LPGA victory (and 10th on Tour) came at the Fubon LPGA Taiwan Championship when she shot 20-under 268 to beat Eun-Hee Ji and Se Yeon Ryu by nine strokes. She became the No. 1 player on the Rolex Rankings for the first time on Feb. 2 after finishing T-2nd at the LPGA's season-opening Coates Golf Champions. At age 17, she became the youngest No. 1 golfer in history (men or women). She fell out of the No. 1 spot on the Rolex Rankings after missing the KPMG Women's PGA Championship cut in June, the first time she ever missed the cut in an LPGA event. Birth Date: January 06, 1999

Birthplace: Yongin City, South Korea

Age: 27 Ht.: 5' 4

Home: Hwasung-si, South Korea

Turned Professional: 2018

Joined LPGA Tour: 2024

Korean LPGA Victories: 5 - 2020 Huen Care Women's Open, 2021 Lotte Rent a Car Ladies Open, Dayouwinia Women's Open, 2022 SK Networks Ladies Classic, the S-OIL Championship

Player Notes: So Mi Lee turned pro in 2018 and qualified for the Korean LPGA in 2019. She was one of the 2019 rookies, including Ayeon Cho, Hyun Kyung Park, Hee Jeong Lim, and Seung Yeon Lee. So Mi had a great rookie year, finishing 14th on the money list with nearly 439 million won (USA$323,012) earned. She had two runner-up finishes that year, including at the Hite Cup, the year's fourth Major. Her most impressive week was the joint LPGA/KLPGA event, the BMW Championship. She got into contention, eventually finishing 4th, five shots back of the Ha Na Jang/Danielle Kang playoff.

2020 was a tough season for the Korean LPGA, with the COVID-19 pandemic canceling much of it. But when the action started again in late May, Lee showed she was ready to play. She finished second in just her fourth event of the year, the Hyosung Championship. She had several more great results, including a third at the BC Card Hankyung Ladies Cup, but that initial win still eluded her. Finally, in late October, she broke through with her first career win at the Huen Care Women's Open. She collected seven top tens and made 402 million won (USA$295,788), good for tenth on the money list.

Lee's trajectory continued upward in 2021. That year, she made over 758 million won (USA$557,730), which put her 6th on the money list. She won twice: at the Dayouwinia Women's Open and at the Lotte Rent-a-Car Open, the year's first event. She accumulated a runner-up (KG Edaily Ladies), two third-place finishes, two fourth-place finishes, and a total of 12 top tens. In just three years,

2022 Notes: It was another powerhouse year for So Mi. She had 11 top ten finishes, though it took her until the end of the year to get into the win column. Then she won back-to-back events: the SK Networks Ladies Classic and the S-OIL Championship. She had a second, a third, and two-fourths in addition to a total of eleven top tens. She earned over 736 million won (USA$542,529) for the year, good for 7th on the money list. She played twice on the LPGA Tour, finishing 5th in the LPGA Lotte Championship and T-44th at the U.S. Women's Open.

2023 Notes: In February 2023, she was invited to play the Saudi Ladies International; she ended up T-24th there. On the KLPGA, she played in 24 events, making 20 cuts with 12 top-ten finishes. She was 7th on the money list with 741,292,998 won (USA$546,434). But she didn't win; her best finish was T-2nd at the Highl Resort Ladies Open and 2nd at the Dongbu Construction Championship. She also played in two Majors on the LPGA: the Evian, where she missed the cut, and the US Women's Open at Pebble Beach, where she finished T-33rd. She decided to enter the LPGA Q-Series. She was near the top of the leaderboard much of the week. On the second-to-last day, she led the tournament after shooting 63, but she had a weak final round of 73 and fell to a T-2nd, three shots back of the medalist Robyn Choi. Still, that earned her Category 14 status for the 2024 season.

2024 Notes: Played in 27 LPGA Tour events, making 16 cuts with one top-ten finish. She was 71st on the CME rankings and 75th on the money list, earning $503,013. Best finish T-5th at the Portland Classic, three shots back of the winner Moriya Jutanugarn.

2025 Notes: Played in 27 LPGA Tour events, making 22 cuts with eight top-ten finishes. She was 10th on the CME Points list and 12th on the money list with $1,758,527 in earnings. She was 2nd in the PIF Saudi Ladies International on the Ladies European Tour, finishing four shots back of winner Jeeno Thitikul. She was T-4th at the Mexico Riviera Maya Open and 3rd at the Meijer Classic, shooting a final round 65 to finish two shots back of the winner, Carlota Ciganda. She teamed with Jin Hee Im to win the Dow Championship, beating Lexi Thompson and Megan Khang on the first playoff hole. They won when Lee made her team's 8-foot birdie putt for the win on the first extra hole, while Khang missed her team's 5-foot birdie putt. She was T-4th at the Buick LPGA Shanghai, T-10th at the Toto Japan Classic, and T-10th at the season-ending CME Group Tour Championship.

2026 Notes: She was 4th at the Honda LPGA Thailand, three shots back of winner Jeeno Thitikul. Lee shot 61 in the second round to take the 36-hole lead and shot 72-68 on the weekend. Birth Date: October 01, 2002

Birthplace: Stanford, Calif.

Age: 23 Ht.: 5'2

Home: Redwood Shores, Calif.

College: Pennsylvania

Turned Professional: 2019

Joined LPGA Tour: 2023

LPGA Tour Playoff Record: 0-1

Epson Tour Victories: 2 - 2022 Carolina Golf Classic, Twin Bridges Championship

Player Notes: Born in Stanford, California, Li now lives in Redwood Shores, California. Her father, Warren Li, is a San Francisco Bay Area computer consultant and stockbroker. Her mother, Amy Zeng, is a former Hewlett-Packard employee. Warren and Amy were raised in China and moved to the United States from Australia in 1998. Warren has a Ph.D. in computer science, while Amy has a master's degree in the field. Lucy was born in 2002. She lived with her aunt Tao Zeng for four months per year to train in Florida near Trump National Doral Miami and McLean's Golf School. Li is homeschooled. She performs some of her school-work through independent study in the months she is in Florida.

Li took diving lessons at Stanford University and was platform diving from 10 meters (32.8 ft) at age 4. She was also active in gymnastics and music. Some sources claim that she began practicing at Mariners Point Golf Center at about age 4 or 5, with informal coaching from her mother and aunt. Other sources claim that she began playing golf at age 7 while watching her older brother Luke, a Princeton University student, hit balls at a driving range. Li likes to tell the latter story, but Mariners Point head pro Joby Ross confirmed that at about 3 or 4 years old, Li was very boisterous about her interest in the sport, to the point of throwing tantrums when asked to leave. At age 7, her parents called Jim McLean, who also coached or coached Lexi Thompson, Cristie Kerr, Keegan Bradley, and Erik Compton, and arranged a visit to meet him at Doral. Afterward, the family made summer living arrangements with her aunt. Then, McLean began working with her. Li's practice course is at Cinnabar Hills in San Jose.

Li is the youngest match-play qualifier in U.S. Women's Amateur Public Links history (10 years, 8 months, 16 days), surpassing Michelle Wie's 2000 record by a mere 7 days. Li was the second-youngest qualifier in May 2013 for the U.S. Women's Amateur Public Links before becoming the youngest to advance to match play that June. The lone person younger than Li was Allisen Corpuz, who qualified in 2008. She is also the youngest U.S. Women's Amateur qualifier, surpassing Latanna Stone's 2012 record age of 10 years, 11 months, and 2 days by beginning the first day of the tournament at age 10 years, 10 months, and 4 days old on August 5, 2013.

In 2014, at the first-ever Drive, Chip, and Putt Championship on the Sunday preceding the 78th edition of the Masters Tournament at Augusta National Golf Club, she won the Girls 10-11 age division. The event was televised on Golf Channel and sponsored by the United States Golf Association, the PGA of America, and Augusta National to increase youth participation in the sport. Over 10,000 youth from over 110 sites participated in a qualification process that yielded 88 qualifiers from 8 age/gender brackets from each of 11 regions. On May 19, 2014, she became the youngest (age 11) to qualify for the U.S. Women's Open, surpassing Thompson's record (12 years, 4 months, 18 days) from the 2007 Open. Notably, Li not only qualified but also won her qualifying event by seven strokes at the Old Course at Half Moon Bay Golf Links. Thompson missed the cut in 2007 with a 36-hole 168 total. Li was the second-youngest to compete; nine years before the introduction of qualification in 1976, Beverly Klass played in the 1967 Open at age 10 years, 7 months, and 21 days. Although Li's qualification was largely heralded, some were befuddled at the state of the sport when a sixth grader could even qualify for one of the year's most prestigious events. Li, who had reached a 1.5 handicap by April, had a handicap better than the threshold of 2.4, making her eligible to participate in qualifications.

Li was 11 years, 8 months, and 19 days old on June 19, the 2014 U.S. Women's Open opening round, held at Course No. 2 of Pinehurst Resort & Country Club. Edel Golf designed custom clubs that Golf Digest described as "blinged-out" for Li to use in the Open. In the first round on Thursday, Li shot a 78 (+8), which had been the highest score that anyone who made the cut in the 2013 Open had tallied. She followed that up with a second 78 on Friday for 156 (+16) and missed the cut by seven strokes. She then walked the course as a fan that Sunday. She next scheduled an appearance in the July U.S. Women's Amateur Public Links in DuPont, Washington. Li shot 74 and 70 to qualify for match play, where she lost to Alice Chen in sudden death in the first round after posting a stroke-play equivalent of a 71. She did not schedule any other USGA events in 2014, deciding to play local events instead and be an 11-year-old. In 2015, she did not qualify for the 2015 U.S. Women's Open.

In August 2016, Li won the Junior PGA Championship. The following month, she was on the winning team for the 2016 Junior Ryder Cup.

She was the only amateur to make the cut at the 2017 ANA Inspiration, earning low amateur honors. She was named to the Junior Solheim Cup team for the United States, which won 14.5 - 9.5. In October, she won the PING Invitational; in November, she won her next event, the Rolex Tournament of Champions.

On May 14 at the Contra Costa Country Club, Pleasant Hill, California, Li qualified for the 2018 U.S. Women's Open, where she was again the youngest player in the field. She was one of seven amateurs to make the cut, and she finished tied for 55th with a 299 (+11). Li was selected to represent the USA in the June 8 - 10, 2018, Curtis Cup. The United States won by the widest margin in the event's history (17 - 3), and Li won her singles match against India Clyburn 5 and 4. At the 2018 U.S. Women's Amateur, Li was co-medalist and earned the number one seed for the match play portion of the event. She lost in the quarter-finals to eventual champion Kristen Gillman on the 19th hole. She contributed to the 2018 Junior Ryder Cup victory.

At the 2018 Summer Youth Olympics, Li teamed with Akshay Bhatia to win the mixed team silver medal.

In 2019, the USGA investigated Li's amateur status after she appeared in an Apple Watch advertisement. Rule 6:2 states: "Even if no payment or compensation is received, an amateur golfer is deemed to receive a personal benefit by promoting, advertising, or selling anything, or allowing his name or likeness to be used by a third party for the promotion, advertisement, or sale of anything. A person who acts contrary to the rules may forfeit his amateur status and, as a result, will be ineligible to play in amateur competitions." She was given a warning but maintained her amateur status. Li was named to the 2019 Junior Solheim Cup team. Li turned professional in late 2019 when she was 17 years old. She was on the Symetra Tour from 2020 through 2022.

Li's first USGA event as a professional was the 2021 U.S. Women's Open, where she finished in a T-16th place at the Olympic Club. This has been Li's best finish in an LPGA major event to date, and the $84,000 in prize money more than doubled her career tournament earnings. Li's first professional victory on the Epson Tour came in a playoff with an eagle 3 on the first hole at the 2022 Carolina Golf Classic. She picked up her second win a month later at the Twin Bridges Championship in Albany, New York. Finished third on the Epson Tour money list to earn LPGA membership for the 2023 season. She also played in eight LPGA Tour events with two top-10s, T-9th at the CP Women's Open and T-4th at the Dana Open.

2023 Notes: Played in 21 LPGA events, making 13 cuts with no top-10 finishes. She was 109th in the CME rankings and 104th on the money list, earning $177,024. Her best finish was T-18th at the DIO Implant LA Open.

2024 Notes: Played in 27 LPGA events, making 18 cuts with three top-10 finishes. She was 33rd in the CME rankings and 54th on the money list, earning $780,181. Started her season with a T-4th finish at the LPGA Drive On Championship. She was four shots back of the Nelly Korda/Lydia Ko playoff. Was T-10th at the Blue Bay LPGA. Li shot 60 in the final round of the Walmart NW Arkansas Championship to tie Jasmine Suwannapura at 17-under 196, then lost a playoff when Suwannapura made a 12-foot-eagle putt on the second extra hole. In the season-ending CME Group Tour Championship, finished T-16th.

2025 Notes: Played in 26 LPGA Tour events, making 20 cuts with two top-ten finishes. She was 58th on the CME Points list and 56th on the money list with $685,495 in earnings. Was T-6th at the Dow Championship with partner Andrea Lee. Was T-4th at the Annika Driven by Gainbridge at Pelican, five shots back of the winner Linn Grant. She graduated from the University of Pennsylvania in the spring with a degree in data analytics and psychological sciences.

Lindblad grew up in Halmstad, on the west coast of Sweden on along the Kattegat Sea. She began playing golf when she was 5, and joined the Swedish National Team in 2017. She represented her country at the European Girls' Team Championship, where Sweden won the bronze in 2018. She was then part of the Swedish teams that won the European Ladies Team Championship in 2019 and 2020, teamed with Frida Kinhult, Sara Kjellker, Maja Stark, Linn Grant, and Beatrice Wallin. She was a member of the 2018 European Junior Ryder Cup team and was selected for the international team at the 2020 Arnold Palmer Cup.

She also excelled individually. In 2017 she won the Irish Girls U18 Open Stroke Play Championship, the Stenson Sunesson Junior Challenge, and the Swedish Junior Classics. In 2018 she won the German Girls Open. She was runner-up at the 2018 Annika Invitational Europe and won the 2019 Annika Invitational USA. In 2019, Lindblad qualified for the 2019 Women's British Open, her first major championship, where she fell short of the cut. She also played in the 2020 U.S. Women's Open, missing the cut.

Lindblad was a freshman at Louisiana State University in 2019-20, following in the footsteps of compatriot Madelene Sagstrom. In her freshman year, she had the best single-season scoring average in LSU women's golf history at 70.33, beating Sagstrom's previous record of 71.48 from 2014 to 2015. In her pandemic-shortened freshman season, she won two individual tournaments, the Magnolia Invitational, and the Florida State Match-Up. Lindblad became the first player in program history to earn South-eastern Conference Player of the Year and Freshman of the Year honors in the same season.

Over the summer of 2020, she played on the Nordic Golf Tour, where she won the GolfhAftet Masters after a playoff with Beatrice Wallin. She then won the Skafto Open in a playoff against Wallin and Linn Grant. With the wins, Lindblad earned a runner-up position behind Grant in the Nordic Golf Tour 2020 Order of Merit, known for sponsorship reasons as the Road to Creekhouse Ladies Open, and a spot at the Creekhouse Ladies Open at Kristianstad Golf Club on the 2021 Ladies European Tour. She played in the LET Didrinksons Skafto Open, finishing T-6th.

Lindblad played in the 2021 Augusta National Women's Amateur and finished T-3rd, a shot back of the Tsubasa Kajitani and Emilia Migliaccio playoff. At the end of July she played in the European Ladies Amateur Championship in Italy and won by three shots over Alexandra Fosterling.

In 2022, Lindblad had a spectacular spring as a junior at LSU, winning four out of the first five tournaments of the year. She won the SEC Women's Individual Championship by sinking a 38-foot putt for eagle on the final hole. Lindblad posted a 2-0-1 record in team match play to help LSU win its first team league title in 30 years. Reaching nine career LSU wins, she topped Jenny Lidback's previous record of seven set in the 1985-86 season.

Lindblad was runner-up at the 2022 Augusta National Women's Amateur, one shot behind winner Anna Davis. At the 2022 U.S. Women's Open held at Pine Needles Lodge and Golf Club in Southern Pines, North Carolina, Lindblad finished as the leading amateur at T-11th. Her first round of 6 under par 65, playing together with Annika Sorenstam and with Sophie Gustafson on the bag, was the lowest round ever by an amateur in the U.S. Women's Open and the second lowest round by a European player in the history of the championship. She also beat the amateur scoring records over 36 and 54 holes and tied the 72-hole amateur record in the tournament. Her putting performance was especially noticed, as she holed 66 of 69 putts inside 10 feet and every one of 50 putts from 5 feet or less during the tournament.

She accepted an invitation to the 2022 Volvo Car Scandinavian Mixed, hosted jointly by the European Tour and Ladies European Tour and held at Halmstad Golf Club, a former Solheim Cup venue in her hometown. Men and women played from different tees, and Lindblad finished T-7th among the women and T-33rd overall. In August 2022, Lindblad was part of the Swedish team that won the World Amateur Team Championship for the Espirito Santo Trophy, beating the United States team on a better tie-breaking non-counting score. In 35 career starts for LSU since the start of her freshman season in 2019, Lindblad has 32 top-15 finishes, including a program-record 11 victories. She had one finish outside the top-15 as a freshman, sophomore, and junior. She has none so far as a senior.

2023 Notes: In her third Augusta National Women's Amateur, she missed the cut with rounds of 78-74. At the NCAA Women's Championship was T-5th, three shots back of the winner Rose Zhang.

In June took over the number one spot in the World Amateur Golf Rankings. Lindblad becomes the 19th golfer to go number one in the rankings since they began in 2011. In the Women's Amateur held at Prince's, she lost in the semi-finals to Chiara Horder 4 & 3. In the European Ladies Amateur was 3rd, three shots back of the winner, Julia Lopez Ramirez.

20224 Notes: She was a graduate student at LSU in the spring and won the Annika Award as the top college player in the country, winning four times during the season. In the spring, she won the Clemson Intercollegiate and the NCAA Bryan Regional, giving her 15 college victories, most in SEC history, topping the old mark of 13 by Stacy Lewis. She struggled at the NCAA Championship, shooting 81 in round two to finish at T-65. It was the first time all season she finished outside the top 10. Although she won her match, LSU lost in the quarterfinals of match play. She was 3rd at the Augusta National Women's Amateur. She turned pro after the college season and joined the Epson Tour, where she finished T-2nd in the Island Resort Championship in her third start as a professional. She shot 64 in the first round of the Amundi Evian Championship and was in contention throughout the week until shooting 74 in the final round to finish T-26th. She won as a pro at the Tuscaloosa Toyota Classic on the Epson Tour for the first time. The win came one week after a bogey on the last hole kept her from getting into a playoff at the Guardian Championship, where she finished 2nd. She finished 6th on the Epson Tour money list with seven cuts made in nine starts after turning pro, to earn her LPGA card for 2025.

2025 Notes: Played in 20 LPGA Tour events, making 12 cuts with one top-ten finish. She was 51st on the CME Points list and 46th on the money list with $856,051 in earnings. As a rookie, she won in her 3rd official start as an LPGA member at the JM Eagle LA Championship, winning by one shot over fellow rookie Akie Iwai, who made bogey at the last hole. Was T-26th in the season-ending CME Group Tour Championship.

JULIA LOPEZ RAMIREZ

Birth Date: February 11, 2003

Birthplace: Benahavis, Spain

Age: 23 Ht.: 5' 7

Home: Malaga, Spain & Starkville, Miss

College: Mississippi State

Turned Professional: 2024

Joined LPGA Tour: 2025

Player Notes: Lopez Ramirez, 20, was born in Benahavis, Spain, a mountain village near southern Spain's famous Costa del Sol. Her father, Jose Antonio, raced motorbikes, an activity Lopez Ramirez still enjoys when she's home, but her mother, Eva Maria, introduced her to golf. When Lopez Ramirez was 4, developers built a driving range and practice course across from her house.

"A coach was giving lessons, and my mom threw me out there," Lopez Ramirez recalled. As her skills improved, her game progressed. She was playing tournaments by 12. She was also having more fun. Admittedly, her playing "was not at a great level," but she knew she could get there. By 14, a multi-sport athlete, Lopez Ramirez, had to decide between golf and soccer. "I played (soccer) for five years and tried to juggle both," she said. She chose golf, and found immediate success on the amateur circuit, competing in prestigious European tournaments. She made the R&A Girls Under-16 Championship semifinals and was runner-up in the 2021 Spanish Amateur. That success led to interest from college programs, including Mississippi State. She committed to MSU without ever visiting campus. She has been a member of Spain's national golf team. She was second in the Spanish International Ladies Amateur in 2021.

2022 news: She played college golf at Mississippi State and was an honorable mention All-American. She was the SEC Freshman of the Year and became the first Bulldog to win her career debut at the Sam Golden Invitational, with a 63 in the final round to finish as co-medalist. She also won the FAU Paradise Invitational and the Westbrook Invitational in the spring, giving her three freshman wins. She was T-5th at the SEC Women's Golf Championship and helped the Bulldogs reach the NCAA Championship. She was a member of the International Palmer Cup team. She lost in the first round of the Women's Amateur. She was a member of Spain's team, which finished third at the European Ladies Team Championship, and was T-12th in the individual portion of the tournament.

2023 News: a sophomore at Mississippi State with four top-10s in the fall and a medalist at the Blessings Collegiate, beating Andrea Lignell by six strokes. She set a course and tournament record with her 65 in the first round. In the spring, she was second at the UCF Challenge and T-5th at the Gators Invitational. Was 3rd at the PING - ASU Invitational. Earned an invitation to the Augusta National Women's Amateur and shot rounds of 76-72 to miss the cut. She won the SEC Women's Golf Championship and was T-1st NCAA Westfield Regional. In the NCAA DI Women's Championship, she finished 13th.

Ramirez won the 2023 European Ladies' Amateur Championship. The Spaniard produced a spectacular finish on Saturday, making three birdies on the final three holes to shoot 67 to win the biggest title of her career. The number-one-ranked amateur player in the world, Ingrid Lindblad, was Sweden's home crowd's favorite, entering the final round with a one-shot advantage. But she could only muster up a 71. Her victory allowed her to play in the AIG Women's Open, where she finished 72nd.

2024 Notes: Julia won the SEC Women's Championship and was the Darius Rucker Intercollegiate co-winner. Got a spot to play in the Augusta National Women's Amateur Championship and finished T-44th. At the Women's Amateur Championship held at Portmarnock, she lost in the quarter-finals to finish T-9th, losing to Ines Archer 3 & 2. In defense of her European Ladies Amateur Championship, she finished T-36th. She was a member of the teams that played the Arnold Palmer Cup and the European Ladies' Team Championship. Played in the AIG Women's Open and finished T-29th. Lopez left college a year early and turned professional in 2024. In December 2024, she earned her LPGA Tour card for 2025 by finishing T-10th at the LPGA Final Qualifying Tournament.

2025 Notes: Played in 24 LPGA Tour events, making 15 cuts with one top-ten finish. She was 68th on the CME Points list and 65th on the money list with $507,771 in earnings. A rookie, she thought she had food poisoning while missing the cut at the Blue Bay LPGA in China. When she returned home, she found she had appendicitis and had her appendix removed in an emergency surgery. She was one shot off the lead after three rounds of the U.S. Women's Open and played in the final group on Sunday with eventual winner Maja Stark. Ramirez struggled in the final round, shooting 79, to finish T-19th. Shot 68-65 over the weekend to finish T-3rd at the ISPS HANDA Women's Scottish Open, seven shots back of the leader Lottie Woad. With the finish, Ramirez claimed one of the three qualifying spots available to the final major of the year, the AIG Women's Open, missing the cut at Royal Porthcawl.

2026 Notes: Best finish, T-10th at the HSBC Women's Champions.

Birthplace: Smørum, Denmark

Age: 31 Ht.: 5' 7

Home: Boca Raton, Fla.

College: South Carolina

Turned Professional: 2015

Joined LPGA Tour: 2017

LPGA Tour Playoff Record: 1-1

Madsen was a rookie on the Ladies European Tour in 2015 after earning her LET card by winning the Lalla Aicha Tour School Final Qualifying.

2015 Notes: In her rookie season on the LET, she competed in 16 tournaments and had six top-10s. Her best finish of the season was in the ISPS Handa New Zealand Women's Open, where she finished 3rd, shooting rounds of 67-69-71. She finished the season in 9th position in the Order of Merit.

2016 Notes: Played in 17 LET tournaments and won the Tipsport Golf Masters. In addition to this, she secured five more top-10 finishes and was 6th in the Order of Merit.

CHARLOTTE NAUGHTON

Age: 17

Home: Northumberland, England

Player Notes: Charlotte Naughton has booked her spot at the AIG Women's Open after securing the 2026 European Ladies' Amateur title at Allerum Golfklubb in Sweden.

The 17-year-old fired rounds of 69, 72, 67 and 72 on the par-72 layout, going wire-to-wire to finish at 8 under, 280, two shots clear of home favorite Meja Ortengren. After the win, Naughton reflected on the victory and getting a spot into the AIG, saying, "I grew up playing links golf, and I can handle the wind," as she anticipated her start at Royal Lytham. "I'm over the moon," said Naughton about the win. "I've put a lot of work in ahead of this event, and I played so well."

Naughton joins a long list of illustrious champions, with notable former winners including European Solheim Cup stars Carlota Ciganda, Caroline Hedwall, Bronte Law and Celine Boutier.

Established in 1986, the championship has now crowned five Englishwomen, with Naughton joining Joanne Morley (1992), Emma Duggleby (2000), Bronte Law (2016) and Alice Hewson (2019).

Naughton, a native of Northumberland, England, was ranked 70th last week in the World Amateur Golf Rankings. Last month she was the youngest member of the Great Britain & Ireland team at the Curtis Cup. Naughton represented Europe at the 2025 Junior Ryder Cup and England in the World Junior Girls Championship.

In June, it was announced that Naughton has signed a letter of intent and will be a freshman at the University of Texas. "We are thrilled to welcome Charlotte to the Longhorn family," Texas head coach Laura Ianello said. "Charlotte is a proven winner who has consistently competed at the highest levels of amateur golf. Representing Great Britain & Ireland in the Curtis Cup is a tremendous accomplishment and speaks volumes about the respect she has earned within the game. She brings experience, toughness, and a championship mindset that will make our team better from day one."

Naughton registered an impressive seven-shot victory in the Junior Orange Bowl in January, setting a tournament record at 10-under. Naughton advanced to the round of 32 in the Women's Amateur Championship in 2025 and finished third in the European Nations Cup in 2026.

Naughton won the World Junior Girls Championship in Canada and the German Girls Amateur and was runner-up in The R&A Girls Amateur Championship. She was named the 2025 Girls' Order of Merit Champion.

"Beyond her talent, Charlotte is a wonderful person and a perfect fit for the culture we're building at Texas," Ianello said. "We believe her best golf is still ahead of her, and we're excited to help her continue her development as a student-athlete and person. Longhorn Nation is going to love watching her compete."

SOPHIA POPOV

Birth Date: October 02, 1992

Birthplace: Framingham, Ma.

Age: 33 Ht.: 5'7

Home: Naples, Fl.

College: USC

Turned Professional: 2014

Joined LPGA Tour: 2015

LPGA Tour Victories: 1 - 2020 AIG Women's Open

Epson Tour Victory: 2025 Carlisle Arizona Women's Golf Classic

Player Notes: She was born in Massachusetts but moved to Germany when she was four and grew up near St. Leon Rot in Germany, the site of the 2015 Solheim Cup. She holds dual German and American citizenship. She started playing golf at age 5. Credits her brother as the individual who influenced her career the most. Her mother, Claudia, was a top swimmer at Stanford, while her father, Philip Popov, was a first-division field hockey player. Popov was an accomplished amateur tennis player and swimmer in Germany before focusing on golf. Was a member of the 2009 European Junior Solheim Cup Team and represented Germany at the 2009 European Girls' Team Championships. She went to USC and played four years on the golf team; her five career victories are tied for most in program history, and the 72.71 career stroke average is second-best at USC. She finished as USC's career leader in rounds in the 60s (22). Finished her career at USC as only the program's second four-time All-American and was a member of USC's 2013 National Championship team. Upon graduation turned pro and finished T-11th at the Final Qualifying Tournament to earn priority category 12 status for the 2015 season.

2015 Notes: Unfortunately, she suffered from chronic lower abdominal and stomach issues and was only about 60-70 percent at the start of the year and for much of the season. The issues persisted, and it wasn't until three years later that she found out she had Lyme disease. Popov played in 10 events on the LPGA, making four cuts. Her best finish was T-41st at the Yokohama Tire LPGA. She also played in 8 events on the Ladies European Tour; her best finish was 13th at the Hero Women's Indian Open. The good news is that Popov had a really good winter break and figured some things out with her doctor back in Germany. To manage her condition, Popov has eliminated several things from her diet. She also works with a doctor from Arizona practicing homeopathic medicine. Her best moment of 2015 might have been the opportunity to be part of the Solheim Cup broadcast team on German television. She was a communications major at USC and hopes to work as a commentator one day.

2016 Notes: She is playing on the Symetra Tour and in 10 starts, had a pair of top-10s, was 2nd at the Chico's Patty Berg Memorial, and T-5th at the Island Resort Championship. Played once on the LPGA Tour, finishing 72nd at the U.S. Women's Open.

2017 Notes: Played in 20 Symetra Tour events, making 18 cuts. She was in the top 25 at 11 tournaments, including a season-best T-2nd at the Tullymore Classic. Finished T-32nd at the LPGA Final Qualifying Tournament to earn Priority List Category 17 for the 2018 LPGA Tour season.

2018 Notes: Played in 12 LPGA Tour events, making six cuts. She was 111th on the money list with $73,445 in earnings. She was 118th on the CME points list. Best finish T-13th at the Meijer LPGA Classic. She played in three Symetra Tour events, making three cuts, with her best finish a T-10th at the Symetra Classic.

2019 Notes: Played 13 Symetra Tour events, making 13 cuts and nine top-ten finishes. Was 25th on the money list with $50,098 in earnings. Best finish 4th at the IOA Golf Classic. On the LPGA Tour, played in 8 events, making only one cut, T-51st at the ShopRite Classic. She lost her LPGA Tour card and went to the LPGA Q-series, but it didn't go well as she missed a shot in getting her card.

2020 Notes: Played in 9 LPGA Tour events, making nine cuts with two top-ten finishes. She was 77th on the money list with $120,674 in earnings. She was 82nd on the CME points list. She played in three Symetra Tour events, best finish T-2nd at the Founders Tribute at Longbow Golf Club. Didn't play in the first part of the LPGA Tour, but during the COVID-19 break, played the Cactus Tour and won three times, twice in April and once in May. When the LPGA Tour started in August, Popov didn't have a full-time LPGA Tour card, giving her limited options. In the first event, LPGA Drive On Championship Toledo, she didn't get to play and caddied for Anne Van Dam, who finished T-11th. She got to play in the Marathon Classic and finished T-9th, her first top-ten on the LPGA. With the good finish was given an exemption into the AIG Women's Open. Despite being 304th on the Rolex Rankings, she shot 67-68 over the weekend and won the event at Royal Troon by two shots over Jasmine Suwannapura. Only one player was ranked worst and won an LPGA event, Meaghan Francella was 332nd when she won the 2007 MasterCard Classic. She finished the year with a best finish of T-15th at the Pelican Women's Championship. Since Popov wasn't a member of the LPGA Tour when she won at Troon, she couldn't play the next week in Arkansas. She couldn't get other perks because she was still considered a "non-member." In February of 2021, they changed the rules to automatically get a Tour card and the other perks if a non-member wins a major.

2021 Notes: Played in 22 LPGA events, making 15 cuts with three top-ten finishes. She was 55th on the CME Points list and 57th on the money list, with earnings of $334,512. She started the season, finishing T-10th at the Diamond Resorts Tournament of Champions. She was T-8th at the Gainbridge LPGA. At the Bank of Hope LPGA Match-play, Popov made it to the finals and lost to Ally Ewing 2 & 1 to finish 2nd. She was T-40th at the Tokyo Olympics as a member of Germany's women's golf team. She played in her first Solheim Cup team for Europe, with a 0-3-0 record. She lost her singles match to Megan Khang 3 & 2. Ended her season T-58th at the CME Group Tour Championship. On November 24th, she got married to her caddie, Maximilian Mehles.

2022 Notes: Played in 18 LPGA Tour events, making 7 cuts with one top-ten finish. She was 120th on the money list with $98,595 in earnings and was 122nd in CME points. Best finish T-10th at the Dow Great Lakes Bay Invitational with partner Anne Van Dam. Her individual best finish was T-18th at the Hilton Tournament of Champions.

2023 Notes: She did not play on any tour in 2023; it was a combination of a shoulder injury and having her first child, her daughter Maya Mae, born on June 8, 2023.

2024 Notes: Popov returned to golf. Her first start was on the LET Aramco Team Series-Tampa, where she finished T-44th. On the LPGA Tour, her best finish before Scotland was T-14th at the Mizuho Americas Open. Played in 17 LPGA events, making 4 cuts. She was 115th on the money list, with earnings of $140,056.

2025 Notes: Played in 17 LPGA Tour events, making 6 cuts with no top-ten finishes. She was 151st on the CME Points list and 142nd on the money list with $70,494 in earnings. She won the Carlisle Arizona Women's Golf Classic on the Epson Tour in May, beating Michelle Zhang by two strokes. Best finish on LPGA, T-18th at the Dow Championship with partner Pernilla Lindberg. Popov played in three tournaments before the LPGA realized a clerical error that placed her too high on the Priority List for those events, denying three other golfers to compete. Although she checked with the tour before being cleared to play in the tournaments, Popov was stripped of all her CME points she had earned in those tournaments.

2026 Notes: Has not played in any professional events; she is having a second kid and looking forward to playing in 2027.

YUKA SASO

Birth Date: June 20, 2001

Birthplace: Manila, Philippines

Age: 25 Ht.: 5' 3

Home: Frisco, Texas

Turned Professional: 2019

Joined LPGA Tour: 2021

LPGA Tour Playoff Record: 1-0

LPGA Tour Victories: 2 - 2021 U.S. Women's Open; 2024 U.S. Women's Open

Japan LPGA Victories: 2 - 2020 NEC Karuizawa 72 Golf Tournament, Nitori Ladies Golf Tournament

Player Notes: Introduced to golf by her father at the age of 8 in 2009. Became more interested in the game by "watching legends." Outside of golf, she enjoys table tennis and basketball. Born in the Philippines and moved to Japan when she was four years old. After falling in love with golf at the age of eight, she moved back to the Philippines to take advantage of better golf weather and lives with her uncle (her father goes back and forth between Japan and the Philippines, and her mother lives in Japan with Yuka's four younger siblings). Yuka has said how sad it was to make that move at first, but then golf is fun. Her goal in life is "to be successful."

Has six top-four finishes in her last seven worldwide starts, including a 4th place finish in the Annika Invitational USA, a win in the Philippines Ladies Open for a second consecutive year, and a runner-up in the Country Club Ladies Invitational in the Philippines in 2019. Recently, she said in an interview, "I'm not so sure if I am playing my best golf at the moment, but I'm happy with the way I'm playing right now. I still need to work on many things, but what matters to me is I'm having fun".

Won gold medals as both an individual and a member of the Philippines team in the 2018 Asian Games in Indonesia. She said that her winning eagle on the last hole was partly a matter of positive thinking. I really wanted an eagle on the last hole. I knew that if I made an eagle, I could win." Finished T-2nd at the end of regulation in Argentina's 2018 Youth Olympic Games but could not secure a medal in the playoff. In 2016, she earned both individual and team gold medals for the Philippines in the World Junior Girls Championship. Other notable accomplishments include finishing runner-up to fellow invitee Atthaya Thitikul in a playoff in the 2018 Women's Amateur Asia-Pacific and reaching the 2016 U.S. Women's Amateur semifinals at the age of 15.

Notable Victories (9): 2018 and 2019 Philippines Ladies Open, 2018 Asian Games (Philippines team and individual), 2018 Thunderbird International Junior (AJGA), 2018 Victorian Junior Masters, 2018 ICTSI Ayala Greenfield Ladies Challenge, 2017 Philippine Amateur, 2016 World Junior Girls Championship (Philippines team and individual), 2016 ICTSI Eagle Ridge Ladies Invitational.

Notable Finishes in Professional Events: Won the 2018 ICTSI Ayala Greenfield Ladies Challenge (Ladies Philippine Golf Tour) (Low Amateur), Won the 2016 ICTSI Eagle Ridge Ladies Invitational (Ladies Philippine Golf Tour) (Low Amateur), runner-up at the 2017 ICTSI Champion Tour at Mount Malarayat (Taiwan LPGA/LPGT) (Low Amateur), 5th at the 2014 ICTSI Sherwood Ladies Championship (LGPT), T-6th 2017 ICTSI Philippine Ladies Masters (TLPGA/LGPT/China LPGA), T-7th 2017 ICTSI Champion Tour at Splendido Taal (Taiwan LPGA/LPGT) (Low Amateur), T-8th 2016 ICTSI Philippines Ladies Masters (Taiwan LPGA/LPGT) (Low Amateur).

In the 2019 Augusta National Women's Amateur, I finished T-3rd, 8 shots back of the winner, Jennifer Kupcho. Also, in 2019, she won the Girls' Junior PGA Championship, lost in the semifinals of the U.S. Girls' Junior Championship, and lost in the first round of match play at the U.S. Women's Amateur. She committed to attending and playing for Georgia but turned down the scholarship to turn pro at the end of 2019. In the fall, she turned pro and earned her tour card on the Japan LPGA.

2020 Notes: Playing on the Japan LPGA, she started very strongly. In her first event of the season was T-5th at the Earth Mondamin Cup. She then won in her second start at the NEC Karuizawa 72 Golf Tournament. She did it again in her next start, won the Nitori Ladies Golf Tournament. Later in the year, she was 2nd in the Toto Japan Classic. She ended the year leading the money list with yen93,891,170 ($849,302), but because of COVID-19, the tour combined 2000 with 2001. At the end of 2020 finished T-13th at the U.S. Women's Open.

2021 Notes: She played in seven Japan LPGA tour events as she started her move to playing in America. In those seven events, her best finish was 2nd at the Toto Japan Classic, where she was three shots back of the winner Jiyai Shin. Lexi Thompson had a five-shot lead in the final round after 8 holes. But Thompson shot 41 and found herself a shot back of Saso and Hataoka. The two went into a two-hole aggregate playoff, and Saso won it on the third hole with a 10-foot birdie. With the win, Saso took up an LPGA Tour membership. At the Marathon Classic, she was T-5th and was 5th again at the Dow Great Lakes Bay Invitational with partner Minjee Lee. As a Philippine women's golf team member, Saso was T-9th at the Tokyo Olympics. Ended her season with a 48th-place finish at the CME Group Tour Championship. In November, she decided to give up her Philippine citizenship to take up Japanese citizenship since Japan bans dual citizenship for Japanese nationals once they turn 22.

2022 Notes: Played in 26 LPGA Tour events, making 19 cuts with four top-ten finishes. She was 28th on the CME Points list and 36th on the money list with $773,294 in earnings. # HINAKO SHIBUNO

Birth Date: November 15, 1998

Birthplace: Okayama, Japan

Age: 27 Ht.: 5' 5

Home: Okayama, Japan

Turned Professional: 2018

Joined LPGA Tour: 2022

LPGA Tour Victories: 1 - 2019 AIG Women's Open

Japan LPGA Victories: 6 - 2019 World Ladies Championship Salonpas Cup, Shiseido Anessa Ladies Open, Descente Ladies Tokai Classic, Daio Paper Elleair Ladies Open, 2021 Stanley Ladies, Mitsubishi Electric Hisako Higuchi Ladies Golf

Player Notes: Shibuno was born in Okayama, Japan, on 15 November 1998. Her father was a discus thrower, and her mother was a javelin thrower. She is the middle child of their three daughters and got the nickname "Smiling Cinderella." She started playing golf and softball when she was a second grader. She was a pitcher and a converted left-handed hitter as a softball player. As a golfer, she finished 3rd in the 2010 Okayama Prefecture Junior Golf Championship (4th, 5th, and 6th grader division).

At Joto junior high school, she joined the school's baseball club as the only female player. However, after winning the 2011 Okayama Prefecture Junior Golf Championship (junior high school division), she decided to focus on golf, taking advice from her baseball coach.

In 2014, she was enrolled at Sakuyo High School, where she continued to play golf for the school. In the same year, she won the Chugoku Region Women's Amateur Championship. As a member of the school team, she won the team competition in the National High School Golf Championship in 2015.

In 2017, after graduating from high school, she was qualified to take a final test to be a professional but failed.

2018 Notes: Shibuno mainly played in the step-up tour circuit. The only JLPGA competition she played in that year was the Earth Mondahmin Cup in June, where she qualified after a successful Monday qualifier. She scored a hole-in-one at the 9th hole of the first day of the competition and earned 6 million yen (just over $54,000) for the feat, despite missing the cut.

In July, she passed the test and turned professional. Shibuno played in Japan's Step up tour, which is like the Symetra Tour in the U.S. and the LET Access series in Europe. For the rest of 2018, she played in 16 events, making the cut in all of them. She had seven top-ten finishes, her best finish was T-3rd at the Nichiiko Ladies Open and 3rd at the Sky Ladies ABC Cup. She finished 10th on the Stepup tour money list with yen7,115,492 ($64,364).

2019 Notes: She joined the Japan LPGA and played in 31 events, making 28 cuts with 13 top-ten finishes. Shibuno won the World Ladies Championship Salonpas Cup in May, one of women's four major golf tournaments on the LPGA of Japan Tour. In July, she won the Shiseido Anessa Ladies Open after a playoff. She was to win four times that year and was 2nd on the LPGA Japan money list with yen152,614,314 or $1,380,488. In August, she won the AIG Women's Open by a shot over Lizette Salas. Shibuno shot 67 in the third round to lead by two shots. She started slowly in the final round, shooting one over on the front nine. At that point, there was a shot at Salas, who shot 32 on the front nine. But with birdies at 10, 12, 13, 14, and 18 for a 31 on the back nine, she beat Salas, who missed a five-foot putt on the last hole, by a shot. The world then found out she had traveled outside of Japan for the 2nd time in her life (the first was to Thailand to practice earlier in the year), and the AIG Women's Open was the first time she competed outside of Japan. She was the second Japanese player to win a women's major championship, after Hisako Higuchi, who won the 1977 LPGA Championship, as well as the second player in the decade to win in her major debut, after Kim Hyo-Joo at the 2014 Evian Championship. At the time, if a non-member wins a major, she can accept full LPGA Tour membership. Shibuno turned it down to get more experience playing on the JLPGA for another season. She says now that If she were to win another LPGA Tour event, she would quickly say she'd accept an LPGA membership. She did play in two more LPGA events, finishing T-39th at the Taiwan Swinging Skirts LPGA and T-13th at the Toto Japan Classic.

2020/21 Notes: Played in 24 events in the dual season, brought on due to COVID-19. She made 19 cuts with nine top-ten finishes. Was 19th on the money list with Yen79,004,375 (US$581,590) in earnings. In 2020, her best finish was T-3rd at the JLPGA Tour Championship Ricoh Cup. It was decided that the 2020 season would run through the 2021 calendar year to make two years one season. In July, she traveled back to England but didn't fare well, missing the cut at both the Ladies Scottish Open and in defense of her AIG Women's Open title. She played a total of 7 LPGA events, and her only top-ten was a 4th at the U.S. Women's Open. She opened up with rounds of 68-67 to lead after 2 rounds. A third-round 74 still kept her in the lead, but when she shot 74 in the final round, she was three shots back of the winner, A Lim Kim. In 2021, she got hot in the last half of the season, finishing in the top ten in seven of her last ten starts. She won twice at the Stanley Ladies and the Mitsubishi Electric Hisako Higuchi Ladies Golf and had a 3rd at the Fujitsu Ladies Golf. On the LPGA Tour, she played in eight events, making six cuts. Her best finish was T-31st at the Pure Silk Championship. After the season, she was T-20th in the LPGA Q Series to earn her LPGA card for 2022, with the plan to play most of her golf in America.

2022 Notes: Played in 23 LPGA Tour events, making 13 cuts with five top-ten finishes. She was 36th on the CME rankings and 27th on the money list, earning $1,011,830. She was T-8th at the Honda LPGA Thailand. At the Chevron Championship, she was T-4th, four shots back of the winner, Jennifer Kupcho. At the LPGA Lotte Championship in Hawaii, she was 2nd, two shots back of winner Hyo Joo Kim. She was 3rd in the AIG Women's Open, one shot out of the Ashleigh Buhai/In Gee Chun playoff. Ended the season with a T-49th finish at the CME Group Tour Championship.

2023 Notes: Played in 23 LPGA Tour events, making 17 cuts with one top-ten finish. She was 83rd on the CME rankings and 87th on the money list, earning $263,069. I was T-7th at the LPGA Drive On Championship at Superstition Mt. I was a member of Japan's team at the Hanwha LIFEPLUS International Crown and scored 0-2-1 in the matches. She was the 36-hole leader at the Freed Group Women's Scottish Open and shot 77-72 on the weekend to finish T-16th.

2024 Notes: Played in 24 LPGA Tour events, making 14 cuts with two top-ten finishes. She was 64th on the CME rankings and 14th on the money list, earning $1,719,878. Shibuno finished 2nd at the U.S. Women's Open, three shots back of winner Yuka Saso. Was T-7th at the KPMG Women's PGA Championship.

2025 Notes: Played in 23 LPGA Tour events, making 10 cuts with one top-ten finish. She was 104th on the CME Points list and 67th on the money list with $444,426 in earnings. Best finish T-7th at the U.S. Women's Open; she was in the running until shooting 74 in the final round. At the end of the season, she finished T-24th in the finals of LPGA Q School to regain her tour card for 2026.

2026 Notes: Best finish T-5th at the Dow Championship with parter Minami Katsu. Best individual finish, T-16th at the Amundi Evian Championship.

Epson Tour Victory: 1 - 2010 International at Concord

Player Notes: She started playing golf at age 9 and credits her parents as the people who most influenced her career. Her grandfather owned an indoor driving range in South Korea, and Jenny would tag along with her family daily to hit balls. She and her family moved to the United States from South Korea in 2002 because the Shins couldn't afford to join a course or pay for their daughter to play in tournaments in South Korea.

When she's not playing golf, Jenny enjoys reading and shopping. She says if she wasn't a golfer, she would have been an artist. She claims the Los Angeles Lakers and Los Angeles Kings are her favorite professional sports teams. Her favorite on-course snack is Nutella on bread.

She won the Los Angeles City Championship at age 10 and three years later won the 2006 U.S. Girls' Junior, where she defeated Vicky Hurst in the final. Shin's victory at 13 years old secured her place as the second-youngest golfer in history (after Aree Song) to win the championship.

She missed the cut by one stroke at the 2008 U.S. Women's Open but continued to play well throughout 2008 and 2009, making the AJGA All-America first team for the third consecutive year.

Shin turned pro in 2010 and joined the Symetra Tour, where she won the 2010 International at Concord and finished 4th on the 2010 money list. She later played in the 2010 U.S. Women's Open Championship.

In the summer before her freshman season, Tavatanakit competed in three of the LPGA's five majors (ANA Inspiration, U.S. Women's Open, Evian Championship). She reached the Round of 16 at the 2017 U.S. Girls' Junior Championship, won all three of her team and individual matches at the 2017 Wyndham Cup, and finished third at the 2017 Rolex Girls Junior Championship.

She made an impact as a member of the UCLA women's golf team, capturing four individual wins and helping to lead the team to a Pac-12 conference title. She defeated her junior teammate, Lilia Vu, in a playoff to take home an individual Pac-12 title. Tavatanakit is the sixth Bruin in program history to earn an individual conference title. She was named to the Pac-12 All-Conference First Team. She also captured a win at the NCAA San Francisco Regional to help the Bruins advance to the NCAA Championships.

2018 Notes: As a freshman at UCLA, she won four times and was a first-team All-American. She was the national Freshman of the Year and the Pac-12 Freshman of the Year. She beat Ko by two shots, and the four players in third place were seven shots back. On the Asian Tour, she was T-3rd at both the HSBC Women's Champions and Honda LPGA Thailand. In the one in Thailand, Patty shot 64-64 to start and led each of the first three days. As an amateur, Carla enjoyed a successful junior and collegiate career. She won a gold medal with Spain and the 2022 World University Games and at the 2023 European Ladies Team Championship. Player Notes: Thitikul was born on 20 February 2003 in Ratchaburi, Thailand to Montree Thitikul and Siriwan. Atthaya, known by her nickname 'Jeen' or 'Jeen', first started playing golf in 2003 when she was six years old. Her father let her play golf or tennis, but she chose golf after watching pictures of both sports on YouTube. She is also known as Atthaya Thitikul.

2007 Notes: Her emergence onto the international golf scene came with her victory at the Ladies European Thailand Championship on the Ladies European Tour. Three days after her 14th birthday, she had already appeared in the Honda LPGA Thailand on the LPGA Tour, finishing 37th out of the 66 competitors. She earned her place in the field when she finished runner-up in the Thailand Amateur Open the previous August, when she was just 13 and 6 months old.

After competing in the LPGA event, she won the Taiwan Amateur Open in June. She won the Ladies European Thailand Championship at the Phoenix Gold Golf and Country Club three weeks later. Thitikul became the youngest person ever to win a professional golf tour event at age 14 years 4 months, 19 days old. The previous record belonged to Canadian Brooke Henderson, who won the 2012 Canadian Women's Tour aged 14 years, 9 months, and 3 days. Her amateur status meant that she could not claim the 1st prize of €45,000 ($52,762) for winning, but it did get her an entry into the AIG Women's Open and The Evian Championship in France. She missed the cut at the AIG Women's Open by a shot but made the cut at the Evian Championship, playing the final two rounds and finishing T-64th.

Thitikul also competed at the Junior Dutch Open in July. In the final round, she carded a course-record 8-under-par round to win the tournament by eight clear shots. In August 2017, at the Southeast Asian Games in Malaysia, she won both the individual gold medal and was part of the Thailand team that won the gold medal.

2018 Notes: In February, she competed in the Women's Amateur Asia-Pacific Championship in Singapore, just as she turned 15. She was part of a four-way tie in the final round but went on to win the title. Her victory earned her a place in the HSBC Women's Champions on the same course, plus entries into the ANA Inspiration at Mission Hills, California, and a place in the AIG Women's Open, for a second year running. At the HSBC Women's Champions, she finished T-8th, four shots back of the winner, Michelle Wie West. At the ANA Inspiration, she finished T-30th, and at the AIG Women's Open, she was T-64th and the low amateur, the only one to make the cut. At the Swinging Skirts LPGA Taiwan Championship, she was T-38th.

2019 Notes: Started the year finishing T-54th at the Honda LPGA Thailand. In June 2019, she won the Ladies European Thailand Championship for the second time in three years. She finished with a five-under-par 67 to win by five shots from Esther Henseleit. Following her win, Thitikul was ranked 1st in the world on the women's World Amateur Golf Ranking and then again from October until January 2020 before turning professional. In August, she played in what would be her last major tournament as an Amateur. She finished T-29th. In December, she represented Thailand at the 2019 Southeast Asian Games. 2019 Notes: Played in nine LPGA events and made one cut, T-72nd at the LPGA Lotte Championship. It was the most challenging year of her life, and she was ready to quit golf. She was 95th in earnings in 2020 and won the Epson money title in 2021. Was T-8th at the Trust Golf Women's Scottish Open. Finished T-3rd at the Amazingcre Portland Classic, two shots back of winner Andrea Lee, and T-3rd at the BMW Ladies Championship, five shots back of the winner Lydia Ko. She was T-30th in her final event for the season at the CME Group Tour Championship.

2023 Notes: Played in 19 LPGA Tour events, making 15 cuts with seven top-ten finishes. She was 1st on the money list with $3,502,303 in earnings and was 1st in CME points. She was the Rolex LPGA Player of the Year. She was T-3rd in the Aramco Saudi Ladies International on the LET, two shots back of winner Lydia Ko. She won the Honda LPGA Thailand for her first LPGA victory, shooting 66-64 on the weekend to beat Natthakritta Vongtaveelap by one shot. Vu was six strokes back at the start of the final round and made eight birdies Sunday to shoot 64. Was T-7th at the LPGA Drive On Championship at Superstition Mt. She got her second win for the year, beating Angel Yin in a playoff at the Chevron Championship. Played for the U.S. team at the Hanwha LIFEPLUS International Crown and was 3-2 in the matches as the Americans finished 3rd. After that, she was forced to take three weeks off due to a sore back. On her return, she missed the cut at the KPMG Women's PGA Championship and the U.S. Women's Open. Vu got her mojo back and shot a final-round 67 to win the AIG Women's Open by six shots over Charley Hull at Walton Heath. She became the first female player to win two majors in the same year since Jin Young Ko in 2019 and the first American woman since Juli Inkster in 1999. The win moved Vu to No. 1 in the World Golf Rankings for the first time. She was a member of the U.S. Solheim Cup and was 1-3-0 in the matches, her only win coming in singles over Madelene Sagstrom, 4 and 3. She finished 2nd at the Buick LPGA Shanghai, losing a playoff to Angel Yin, who birdied the first extra hole. At the Annika Driven by Gainbridge at Pelican, she shot 62-66 over the weekend to win by three shots over Alison Lee and Azahara Munoz. She ended the season shooting a final round 65 to finish T-4th at the CME Group Tour Championship.

2024 Notes: Played in 18 LPGA Tour events, making 17 cuts with four top-ten finishes. She was 8th on the money list with $2,088,335 in earnings and was 11th in CME points. After finishing T-7th at the Honda LPGA Thailand, she was forced to withdraw from two Asian events due to an injury. She also had to withdraw from the Chevron due to back pain. She took the next two months off to heal the back problem and, at the Meijer LPGA Classic, made up an eight-shot final-round deficit by shooting 65 and then beating Lexi Thompson and Grace Kim with a birdie on the third extra hole. A week later, she was T-2nd at the KPMG Women's PGA Championship, finishing three shots back of the winner, Amy Yang. She played at the Paris Olympics as a member of the U.S. women's golf team, finishing T-36th. She was T-2nd at the AIG Women's Open. She needed to birdie the last hole to force a playoff, and made bogey instead, finishing two shots back of the winner, Lydia Ko. She was named to the U.S. Solheim

Cup team for the second time and was 1-2-1 in the matches. Vu halved her singles match with Albane Valenzuela. She finished T-40th at the CME Group Tour Championship.

2025 Notes: Played in 19 LPGA Tour events, making 8 cuts with one top-ten finish. She was 77th on the CME Points list and 89th on the money list with $269,408 in earnings. She played most of the year with a sore back. Vu said a change of diet did help to relieve pain but had other side effects on her body with the change. She placed second at the Ford Championship, losing in a playoff to Hyo Joo Kim, who made a birdie at the first playoff hole. After the Ford Championship, she didn't have a top-60 finish in her last 16 starts.

2026 Notes: Was T-3rd at the Dow Championship with partner Alison Lee; her best individual finish was T-17th at the Hilton Tournament of Champions.

Player Notes: Woad has a younger sister, Milly, a golfer and the only current player in the family with a hole-in-one during her career. Lottie got her first set of clubs from her granddad when she was three. She won the title of England's Most Improved Golfer when she was 13. Her professional goal is to play on the LPGA Tour, and she also played soccer for the Southampton Center of Excellence. She plays at Florida State and was a first-team All-American in 2023 and 2024, and she is majoring in sports management.

She was T-13th in the 2022 Madrid Ladies Open on the LET and T-8 in the Terre Blanche Ladies Open on the LET Access Series. She was T-4th in the 2022 European Ladies' Amateur Championship. She helped England win the 2022 European Ladies' Team Championship, going 2-0 in her matches in the finals against Italy, as England won 4 and a half to 2 and a half. She was T-17th in the individual portion of the competition. She won the 2022 Girls' Amateur Championship, beating Cayetana Fernandez Garcia-Poggio, 7 and 6, in the final.

2023 Notes: A freshman at Florida State, Woad won two times (at the Ivy Intercollegiate at Baltusrol and the Florida State Match-Up). She was a first-team All-American, becoming the third FSU freshman to earn that honor (joining Caroline Westrup and Frida Kinhult). She was also runner-up to Caley McGinty in the South American Women's Amateur. She was T-13th in the Augusta National Women's Amateur and finished T-42nd in the European Ladies' Amateur Championship. She represented England at the 2023 World Amateur Team Championship, where the team finished T-4th.

2024 News: She won the Augusta National Women's Amateur, making birdies on three of her last four holes (with long birdie putts on Nos. 17 and 18) to beat Bailey Shoemaker by one shot. Woad shot a 69 at Augusta National in the final round, finishing at 8-under 208. She was T-23rd in the Chevron Championship. She was four shots off the lead after 36 holes, but she shot 73-74 over the last two rounds and eventually finished as second-low amateur, two shots back of Jasmine Koo, who won low amateur honors. She missed the cut in the U.S. Women's Open and lost in the third round of The Women's Amateur. Woad won the Mark H McCormack Medal as the leading woman in the 2024 World Amateur Golf Ranking. She is the first winner of the women's McCormack Medal from England, and she will receive exemptions into the US Women's Open (T-31st) and the AIG Women's Open in 2025.

2025 Notes: She was a junior at Florida State in the spring and was a first-team All-American. She won the Landfall Tradition in the fall semester and was T-3rd in the ACC Championship. She was runner-up in the NCAA Lexington Regional and T-8th in the NCAA Championship (the only time all season she finished outside the top three in an event) and helped FSU reach match play, where they lost in the semifinals. Woad won her quarterfinal match but lost in the semis to Megha Ganne, as Stanford advanced to the championship match. She was third in defending her Augusta National Women's Amateur title, shooting 72 in the final round to finish three shots back of the winner Carla Bernet Escuder. She was the low amateur at the U.S. Women's Open, finishing T-31st. Playing in the KPMG Women's Irish Open on the Ladies European Tour, she shot 21-under 271 on the par-73 Carton House GC to win by six shots over Madelene Sagstrom. She led by seven entering the final round and shot 69 to run away with the title. She was the first amateur to win an LET event since Jana Melichova won the 2022 Tipsport Czech Ladies Open. In her next start as an amateur at the Evian Championship, she shot a final round 64 to finish T-3rd, one shot back of the Grace Kim/Jeeno Thitikul playoff. That performance saw her reach the 20 points necessary to be eligible for LPGA Membership through the LPGA Elite Amateur Pathway (LEAP). Woad became the first athlete to earn LPGA Tour status via the LPGA Elite Amateur Pathway. She had been thinking about turning pro for most of the year. She decided to make her professional debut at the ISPS Handa Scottish Open. It was a big success as she shot rounds of 67-65-67-68 to win by three shots over Hyo Joo Kim. The next week, she finished T-8th at the AIG Women's Open. Shot a final round 66 to finish 3rd at the Kroger Queen City Championship, two shots back of the winner, Charley Hull. Her family moved to Australia for golf. Her father is a former physical education teacher in Korea. She was based in Queensland for 14 months prior to her victory in the ANZ Ladies Masters in 2006. She was involved in a golf program at the Robina High School on Australia's Gold Coast. Her coach, Lawrie Montague, was the Australian national coach from 1992-99 and owns Australia High-Performance Golf Academy.

Yang enjoys shopping, watching movies, and hanging out with her friends when she is not playing golf. Her favorite on-course memory was her first hole-in-one. It landed squarely in the hole without a bounce, and she won a watch for it. She says the hardest thing she's ever had to do is learn English.

After winning the 2008 HypoVereinsbank Ladies German Open presented by Audi on the Ladies European Tour, she donated her first-place earnings to the victims of the earthquake in China's Sichuan province. Won the 2006 ANZ Ladies Masters on the Ladies European Tour as an amateur to become the youngest winner ever on the LET at 16 years, 9 months, 18 days. ## ROSE ZHANG

Birth Date: May 24, 2003

Birthplace: Arcadia, Ca.

Age: 23 Ht.: 5' 6

Home: Irvine, Ca.

College: Stanford University

Turned Professional: 2023

Joined LPGA Tour: 2023

LPGA Tour Playoff Record: 1-0

LPGA Tour Victories: 2 - 2023 Mizuho Americas Open; 2024 Cognizant Founders Cup

Player Notes: Zhang was born in Arcadia, California, and lives in Irvine, California. She began golfing at 9 when a family friend dropped off golf clubs for her dad. Zhang picked up all of her dad's hobbies, especially tennis. This one, however, was new to her. She had to try. Zhang snatched a club, took a stance, swung, and missed. Then she whiffed it again. On the faithful third try, she hit it flush, this time sending the ball nearly out of the yard. With that, her dad thought it best for his girl to get some lessons. A few months later, she won her first event.

Zhang has been attending Pacific Academy and is committed to Stanford in the fall of 2021. She made headlines when she won the PGA Girls Junior in 2017. Zhang was remarkable for 72 holes, making an eagle, 22 birdies, and just four bogeys to win by six over Yealimi Noh. She was off and running with that victory at just 14 years old. Two weeks later, Zhang won the Junior America's Cup, beating Brianna Navarrosa by five shots.

2018 Notes: Zhang won the ANA Junior Inspiration. Played on the same course as the ANA Inspiration, and a week before the LPGA event, Zhang birdied the final hole to beat Ashley Menne by a shot. With the win, she had the honor of jumping into Poppie's Pond with Patty Sheehan. Another perk of winning this event was that Zhang got to stick around for the next week and play in the ANA Inspiration. For the 14-year-old, she got to play in her first LPGA start and shot 72-70 to make the cut and then 77-70 to finish T-60th. In August, Zhang won again at the Swinging Skirts AJGA Invitational, beating Irene Kim by two shots. With that victory, it provided another perk. She got to play in the Swinging Skirts LPGA Taiwan Championship and finished T-78th. She had her moments of not winning. In defense of her PGA Girls Junior, she finished 2nd to Yealimi Noh, who won by 4 shots.

Zhang was so good that she played first in the USGA Women's Amateur before playing in the USGA Girls Junior. In the 2018 Women's Amateur, at just 15, she shot 73-72 but didn't make it into the matchplay because she lost a nine-woman playoff for one spot. Later in the year, Zhang won the PING Invitational by a shot over Erica Shepherd.

2019 Notes: She began her year in a title defense at the ANA Junior Inspiration, but this time, she finished 3rd, a shot back of the playoff, which Cindy Kou won. She was one of the youngest competitors in the inaugural Augusta National Women's Amateur and finished T-17th. Zhang was runner-up in the Thunderbird International Junior. After that, she qualified to play in the U.S. Women's Open, where she made the cut and finished T-55th. Zhang won the Toyota Junior World Cup held in Japan three weeks later. She was tied with Cory Lopez and Cassie Porter and beat them in a playoff. She got to play in the USGA Girls Junior and made it to the Quarterfinals, losing to another future star, Yuka Saso (won the '21 Women's Open) 2 up. Zhang stuck around and caddied for her friend and future Stanford teammate Angelina Ye, who won the next two matches to win the U.S. Girls Junior. It was off to Peru to play for America in the Pan-American Games. Zhang was on the winning U.S. mixed-gender team and placed 8th in the individual competition. She returned to San Francisco to defend her Swinging Skirts AJGA Invitational and defeated Ho Yu An by three shots. That earned her another trip to Taiwan to play in the Taiwan Swinging Skirts LPGA, where Zhang finished T-65th. She ended her year in Florida and won the Rolex Tournament of Champions by 11 shots over Sadie Englemann. The American Junior Golf Association named her the 2019 Girls Rolex Junior Player of the Year.

2020 Notes: Because of COVID-19, she only played in seven events. The first was in April, at the ANNIEKA Invitational. She finished T-3rd, five shots back of winner Benedetta Moresco. She didn't play another event for four months. At 17, she played in the U.S. Women's Amateur at Woodmont Country Club, just outside Washington D.C. She comfortably made it into match play and beat Anna Morgan, Maria Bohorquez, Rachel Heck, Kaleigh Telfer, and Alyaa Abdulghany, making it into the finals against another accomplished player, Gabriela Ruffels. It was a long haul for Zhang, who considered withdrawing due to a sore wrist, but with daily treatments of ice packs and medical tape, she was able to go the distance. Ruffels was the defending champion, and they both were good in the round as they won seven holes and found themselves tied after 36 holes. On the first playoff hole, Zhang got up and down from 95 yards to make par after a poor tee shot. When Ruffels missed her birdie putt, they went to the 38th hole. The match ended when Ruffels missed a three-foot par putt, which horseshoes out of the hole. So Zhang added another trophy to her mantle at home. She won the Rolex Girls Junior Championship two weeks later by two shots over Lella Raines and Bohyun Park. She then returned to Mission Hills to play in the ANA Inspiration for the third time. Zhang played solidly to finish T-11th and gained more valuable information on playing on the LPGA Tour. With this finish, she rose to number 1 in the World Amateur Golf Rankings and won the Mark McCormack Medal as the leading player on the World Amateur Women's Golf Ranking after the women's amateur season. Zhang ended the year with wins in the Junior World Cup, the PING Invitational, and the AJGA Rolex Tournament of Champions. At the end of the year, she returned to the U.S. Women's Open for a 2nd time and missed the cut.

2021 Notes: She started her year playing the Carlisle Arizona Women's Golf Classic on the Symetra Tour. She almost won her first professional title, but Ruixin Liu wouldn't let it happen. Liu, the 2018 Symetra Tour player of the year, found herself tied with Zhang after regulation and made a birdie on the 2nd playoff hole to deny Zhang the win. At the Augusta National Women's

Amateur Championship, Zhang shot 71-72 in the first two rounds and was the co-leader going into the final round at Augusta National. But she stumbled, making a triple bogey on the par-5 13th hole. Zhang shot 75 and finished T-3rd, a shot back of the playoff that Tsubasa Kajitani won. She was off to Hawaii to play in the LOTTE Championship and finished T-33rd. It was back on the Symetra Tour, and she was T-22nd at the Copper Rock Championship. She missed the cut in her third U.S. Women's Open in San Francisco. The next event was the USGA Girls' Junior. Because of COVID-19, the event was canceled in 2020, and for Zhang, this was her last chance to claim the title. She didn't disappoint. With rounds of 69-62, she was the medalist by six shots. She continued her domination in match play. In the round of 64, she beat Lauryn Nguyen 6 & 4. In the round of 32, she beat Rianne Mikhaela Malixi 4 & 3. In the round of 16, she beat Amari Avery 4 & 2, and in the quarterfinals, she beat Yana Wilson 5 & 4. She got her first real test in her semifinal match against Mexico's Paula Miranda, who, after 10 holes, led 2 up. Zhang won the 11th, 12th, and 13th holes to take a 1-up lead, but Miranda made a birdie at 17 to square the match before both made pars at 18 to send the match into overtime. When Miranda made a bogey on the 2nd extra hole, Zhang went into the final match against Bailey Davis. The 36-hole match was close for 11 holes, but Zhang won four of the next seven holes to finish the first 18 holes 4 up. After Davis birdied the 1st hole of the 2nd 18, the rest of the way was anticlimactic. Davis would win only one more hole, but by then, Zhang was 6 up, and she claimed the title on the 32nd hole 6 & 4. The win made Zhang the 8th player in USGA history to win both the U.S. Girls' Junior and the U.S. Women's Amateur. Zhang was off to France to play in the Amundi Evian Championship, where she finished T-58th. It was off to Rye, New York, to defend her U.S. Women's Amateur title. It was a rough week for the 18-year-old. She was 2 over in stroke play and comfortably made it into Match Play. But things didn't go well in her round of 64 match with Elle Nachmann. Zhang rang up a 2-up lead after 12 holes but then lost 3 of the last 6 holes, and even though Zhang made a birdie on the 18th hole, so did Nachmann. She was named to the 2021 U.S. Curtis Cup team and had a 4-0-1 record in the American victory. Zhang won the Mark McCormack Medal as the leading player on the World Amateur Women's Golf Ranking after the women's amateur season. It was the second straight year she had won the award. She was a triple crown winner at Spirit International, winning the women's individual portion of the competition by three strokes over Isabella Fierro and helping the U.S. team to the women's championship (with Stanford teammate Rachel Heck) and the overall combined championship.

2022 Notes: She was a freshman at Stanford in the spring after winning her first three collegiate starts in the fall semester at the Molly Collegiate Invitational, the Windy City Collegiate Classic, and the Stanford Intercollegiate. She was the first Stanford player, male or female, to win her first three collegiate starts. Her winning streak ended with a T-4th at the Lamkin Invitational in February, and after that, she had consecutive runner-up finishes at the Gunrock Invitational and the Juli Inkster Meadow Club Collegiate. She was T-10th at the Ping/ASU Invitational, extending her streak of top-10 finishes to start her college career to seven events. She was T-12th at the Augusta National Women's Amateur Championship. She won the NCAA D1 Women's Championship by three shots. On her 19th birthday, she was presented with the Annika Award for best female college golfer of the year. She then clinched Stanford's second NCAA team title by winning the final match, 3 and 1. In June 2022, Adidas announced its first name, image, and likeness deal with Zhang, making her the company's first student-athlete. The multi-year agreement was announced on the morning of Zhang's entering the U.S. Women's Open. Played in the U.S. Women's Open and finished T-40th. She was a U.S. Curtis Cup team member in 2022 with a 2-1-1 record; she beat Louise Duncan in her singles match 7 & 5. She was T-28th in the AIG Women's Open and won the Smyth Salver as the low amateur. Zhang won the Mark McCormack Medal as the leading player on the World Amateur Women's Golf Ranking after the women's amateur season. It was the third straight year she won the award, joining Leona Maguire and Lydia Ko as three-time winners. She was a co-medalist in the individual portion of the World Amateur Team Championship and helped the U.S. (with Rachel Kuehn of Wake Forest and her Stanford teammate Rachel Heck) finish 2nd and win the Silver Medal.

2023 Notes: She was a sophomore on the Stanford women's golf team and won eight times during the season, including the NCAA Division I Women's Golf Championship for the second straight year. She then won the Augusta National Women's Amateur in a playoff over Jenny Bae. Zhang led by five shots after two rounds but then shot 76 in the final round to fall into a playoff, which she won with a par on the second extra hole. She ended her college career on a high note with three more wins in consecutive weeks at the Pac-12 Championship, the NCAA Pullman Regional, and the NCAA Division I Women's Golf Championship, giving her 12 wins in her college career, most by a male or female in school history. Zhang turned pro less than two weeks after the NCAA Championship and won her pro debut at the Mizuho Americas Open. Zhang was the 54-hole leader but shot 74 Sunday to fall into a tie with Jennifer Kupcho after 72 holes. She won with a par on the second playoff hole. She is the first player to win an LPGA event in her first start as a professional since Beverly Hanson won the 1951 Eastern Open in the second year of the LPGA. Zhang was awarded LPGA membership after the victory. She was T-8th in the KPMG Women's PGA Championship, three back of winner Ruoning Yin, and followed that by finishing T-9th in the U.S. Women's Open and the Amundi Evian Championship. She was a U.S. Solheim Cup team member and was 0-2-1 in the matches. After that finished T-3rd at the Maybank Championship, two shots back of the Celine Boutier/Atthaya Thitikul playoff. Ended the season with a T-13th finish at the CME Group Tour Championship. For the year, she played in 14 LPGA Tour events, making 12 cuts with five top-ten finishes. She was 26th on the CME Points list and 21st on the money list, with earnings of $1,389,794.

2024 Notes: Played in 20 LPGA Tour events, making 16 cuts with five top-ten finishes. She was 21st on the money list with $1,137,159 in earnings and was 21st in CME Points. She started the year by finishing T-7th at the Hilton Tournament of Champions. After that, she returned to Stanford and took a full load of classes in the spring semester. She was T-5th in the T-Mobile Match Play, losing in the quarterfinals to Sei Young Kim, 6 and 5. At the Cognizant Founders Cup, she birdied four of her last five holes to win her second LPGA event by two shots over Madelene Sagstrom. A week later, she withdrew from the Mizuho Americas Open in her title defense during the first round due to an illness. Was T-6th at the CPKC Women's Open, six shots back of the winner, Lauren Coughlin. She played at the Paris Olympics as a U.S. women's golf team member. She finished two shots back of Esther Henseleit and the bronze medal, and five shots back of the Gold Medal winner, Lydia Ko. Played in her second Solheim Cup, Zhang was the top scorer for the U.S. Solheim Cup team after failing to win a match in 2023. She helped the U.S. regain the Cup with a 15.5 to 12.5 win. Zhang was 4-0-0 in the matches, the only player with four points, winning her singles match over Carlota Ciganda, 6 & 4. Was T-5th at the Annika Driven by Gainbridge. Ended her season finishing T-52nd at the CME Group Tour Championship.

2025 Notes: Played in 14 LPGA Tour events, making 7 cuts with two top-ten finishes. She was 62nd on the CME Points list and 72nd on the money list with $298,932 in earnings. She spent time working at Stanford for a degree in communications. In her quest to play golf and work on her degree, it became tougher when she had neck spasms and shoulder pain. She was sidelined in the spring by the neck injury, which caused her to miss the Chevron Championship in April. Her best finish was T-5th at the FM Championship, five back of the winner Miranda Wang.

2026 Notes: She continues her dual role of working toward getting her degree and playing golf. Best finish, T-9th at the Hilton Tournament of Champions and Ford Championship.
