

TUESDAY, MARCH 3, 2026 – 6 AM WEATHER FORECAST

Thunderstorms threaten Blue Bay as soon as 2 PM this afternoon, with a heightened likelihood in the 4 to 7PM window. Overnight, rainfall is expected. There will be a wide range of rainfall totals across the region, with a forecasted range of 0.3 to 0.8" // 8 to 20mm. Worst-case scenario amounts are over 2 inches (50mm). The wind shifts to the east and northeast direction today, and remains that direction for the remainder of the tournament. Rainfall chances dwindle on Wednesday, and only a slight chance of light rain exists on Thursday and Sunday. The rest of the tournament is expected to be under stable conditions, which I am happy to report!
