QUOTABLES

Haeran Ryu (1, -17) on playing in the wet conditions

“It was softer than the last two days because a lot of rain. Today after 15, I just tried -- because difficult with the rain and windy, too. Just finishing faster. But putter better than last two days. We have one more round and tomorrow supposed to be rain again. So I just want more enjoying.”

Minji Park (T2, -13) on the different conditions throughout the week

“The first round was the toughest because the wind was so strong. By the second and third rounds, I had a better understanding of how to play the course, and the weather was also better than it was on the first day. Today, I kept trying to adjust my game and manage the course according to the conditions which really paid off.”

Hye-Jin Choi (T2, -13) on her strong front nine and the end of her round

“I had a really good score on the front nine. I felt good about my ball-striking early on, so I was able to play confidently and make a lot of birdie putts, which helped. I'm a little disappointed with how I played on the back nine, but I'll prepare well for the rest of the day and do my best.”

Yuri Yoshida (T2, -13) on how she stayed so consistent during her round

“First of all, I was really surprised. Course conditions still good from heavy rain last night, and my shots were stable today, so that's why.”

Grace Kim (T11, -10) on what she figured out after her first round

“I did head back to the range and putting green after the first round just to get some better feels going, and yeah, I just needed more rest, I guess. And then the putting, it's more to do with the feels, and again, that only will gradually get better with rest, as well.”
