QUOTABLES

Jeeno Thitikul (1, -20) on playing in front of her family this week

"I think it's mean a lot, especially my family. My mom wouldn't come for the whole year. This is only like event that she going to came out and watch me play, so it's mean a lot to me. You know, like my mom is not really coming out, so playing in front of her and then I think if she saw so many people cheering for me and grabbing for me she would be so proud."

Hyo Joo Kim (2, -18) on being two strokes back heading into the final round

"I think being in first is actually probably the best. I'm in a position where I have to chase, but I think being in that position I can be more aggressive within my play. I had some mistakes that I made today so tomorrow I just want to be more aggressive and hopefully finish first."

Allisen Corpuz (T3, -17) on what has been going well with her game this week

"Yeah, really just been hitting the ball well. I have had a lot of really good birdie looks every day, and been able to convert them. Drove the green on 15 today and had a two putt birdie there, and I think just the more I come back to this course year after year I just kind of learn it a little better and learn where your birdie opportunities are."

Somi Lee (T3, -17) on her focus for the final round

"My shots didn't go as expected to today so I will be practicing and hoping to find my rhythm going into tomorrow. Honestly, compared to my shots earlier in the year it's gotten better, so I'm going to try to go in with like an easeful mind tomorrow."
