QUOTABLE

Hannah Green (1, -17) on winning at El Caballero Country Club

"I mean, anywhere in California seems quite nice to me. Even when we played in San Francisco I had some good results up there. Yeah, El Cab is a really good venue. The members, the staff, everyone have really made us feel like it's a true championship tournament. So, yeah, I don't know where it is next year. I guess we'll hopefully find that out soon. I think it will stay in LA, so that will be really nice."

Sei Young Kim (T2, -17) on a tough loss in the playoff

"Yeah, I don't know. Just little disappointed because I had a good chance for the win. Yeah, but she plays well. Strong finish back nine. Yeah, she deserve that. Yeah, kind of exciting for next week."

Jin Hee Im (T2, -17) on her overall week in Los Angeles

"I just really enjoy this week. I really happy to playing like mostly at the time my ball going really thinking what I'm -- really go what I'm thinking, and then, yeah, I'm really enjoyed it."

Ina Yoon (4, -16) on her confidence to start the year

"The season starts way nicer than last year, so I'm kind of hoping have one win in this year. But I'm doing great, so let's just not force to get win. Just do my process well, like improve every week, so one day I might be there."

Haeran Ryu (T5, -14) on her 6-under final round

"Well, I don't know I'm making nine birdies today. So, yeah, today I just keep focus for my swing, because after two week ago in Vegas my shot is so bad. Then I try to fix my swing with my Korean coach, so every day call him, every day take a video, and every ask him like, this is good? So that's why today is pretty good my shot and my putt. I'm so happy I'm coming to the media center in the final round."
