Green on if she is playing the best golf of her career

“Yeah, I feel like I have to say yes to that. I feel like a lot of wins I had on tour I haven't performed that well the weekend before. So I feel like coming in this having a top 10 in Thailand and continuing that form has been really, really nice. 2024 was a great season. Had three wins that year, but a little bit more spread out. Again, it's kind of, yeah, a weird feeling. Obviously I'm very confident and I had the performances that I won, but we still have such a long season ahead. Last year was probably one of my most inconsistent years throughout the season, so I want it use this confidence as much as I can and also make sure that I'm not too -- I guess changing my goals too much and putting too much pressure on myself to continue this form. Sometimes you can play your best golf and you don't turn out to be the winner at the end of the week. It's a unique sport in that sense.”

Lee on playing near her hometown and surrounded by friends and family

I honestly don't feel any extra pressure. I actually really enjoy when familiar faces, family and friends come out to watch and support me. It feels like I have a little bit of a fan base out here and it's nice to hear their cheers if I have a good hole or make a birdie or something like that. So it's not really pressure, but like you said, probably a little bit of motivation just to want to do really well in front of them.

Rolex Rankings No. 22 Brooke HendersonVideo | Transcript

Henderson on continuing to stay on top of her game each week

"That's a good question. I think I'm still trying to figure it out. I feel like every year the Tour continues to grow stronger, so I'm just trying to grow with it. Just trying to be a better as a golfer every day and as a person, too. Just make small improvements. I feel like my team has been really great. My dad is my coach. Sister caddied for me up until the past couple months. They're always on my side helping to push forward and try to improve in small increments."

Rolex Rankings No. 70 and Defending Champion Ingrid LindbladVideo | Transcript

Lindblad on conquering her recent struggles on the golf course

"We've talked a lot about like breathing and just feeling like it's okay to be scared basically. But you can't make a scared swing. Like it's better to make a good swing and you hit it offensive line versus like, oh, shoot I can't miss it left. Let me just steer it right. I would rather just swing at it and if it misses, it's okay."

Lee on adjusting to life on Tour as an LPGA Mom

"Yeah, it's just been such a crazy journey. It's so many up and downs. I feel like I've done everything I can to try and do my best to prep for this comeback this week. I actually wasn't going to play my first LPGA event until next month at Mizuho. I decided I wanted to try and come back a little early and compete at Chevron as well. It's been so crazy. I feel really lucky with how my body has been able to recover. I had to have an emergency C-section in April last year, but six weeks later I was able to hit balls, and four months later I was able to play my first LPGA event. It's been a lot. It's been a learning journey. Every day looks so different, just trying to find time to sneak out of the house and hit some balls and prep. But it's just been so much fun. I mean, being a mom has been so cool, so rewarding, and I'm really lucky Levi is honestly super sweet. He rarely cries or gets too upset. I just feel really blessed with life this past year. I have no complaints."

Rolex AJGA Rankings No. 1 and Sponsor Invitation Asterisk TalleyVideo | Transcript

Talley on inspiring the next generation of junior golfers

“It's always a great thing to have in your heart on the golf course; just trying to inspire every week. Obviously that does help when you're kind of not having your best day and you see people that are still cheering for you and you still have fans. That's the best part of this game. Just always having people by your side even when you don't have a team to lean on. It's good to have your team outside of the golf course when you're not on it. But it's always great to have that support on and off the golf course, even if you have the best day or the worst day.”

Rolex AJGA Rankings No. 2 and Sponsor Invitation Aphrodite Deng

Video | Transcript

Deng on what she learned in her Augusta National Women's Amateur debut two weeks ago

“Yeah, I think just staying like consistent with my mental. After hitting a bad shot, knowing that I can bounce back. Because it's really easy to drop on the leaderboards when it's really tight.”
