Today – Rainfall this morning: 1.10". Dry conditions are anticipated over the next several hours with a brief period of sunshine possible between 1-4pm. Otherwise clouds will quickly return by this evening as a warm front reaches the area. This front likely triggers additional showers/T-storm development around Hazeltine but this threat is mostly after 7-8pm. Peak winds have already occurred today with gusts remaining under 30 mph this afternoon. Sunrise: 5:31am / Sunset: 9:04pm
