Extended Forecast – Showers with a few embedded tstorms are likely tomorrow afternoon with some lingering activity extending into Thursday morning. More significant severe weather is expected just to our south across portions of IL/IN. Dry weather is then expected most of Thursday through Saturday with a slight chance of showers returning to the area on Sunday. Overnight low temperatures will be in the 50s with daytime highs in the upper 60s to mid-70s. Winds are expected to be elevated through much of the extended forecast with gusts commonly between 25-35 mph.
