PRE-TOURNAMENT AVAILABILITY HIGHLIGHTSRolex Rankings No. 1 Nelly KordaVideo | TranscriptKorda on going to Prague last week

"It was so much fun getting back to Prague, my childhood, relive so many memories, growing up and got to play golf there, too, which is always very scenic and different. Just a very wholesome week. Lots of calories and food but a lot of walking, too, so it kind of balanced out."

Rolex Rankings No. 5 and Defending Champion Lottie WoadVideo | TranscriptWoad reflecting on her last 12 months as a professional

"Yeah, it's definitely been a long year. Played a lot of golf. A lot of new experiences. Yeah, it's nice to come back to where I guess it all started, my pro debut here. I've been happy with how I've been playing. Definitely learned some things as well in the year, so want to treat this year more as my rookie year rather than the last few events I had last year. Just treat this one as my first year."

Rolex Rankings No. 7 Charley HullVideo | TranscriptHull on what clicks for her on links golf

“Yeah, it should do. But if you look at like the British Open, there's a lot of elements in it, and like British Opens always have like so many different kind of winners. So I feel like there is a little bit of luck involved and a lot of patience involved because you can get bad bounces, and you can get -- have funky shots and stuff. So you just have to accept them and just kind of just deal with it.”

Green on not playing in this event since 2022

“I have not had a good track record in the AIG the last three or four years, and I do think that comes to not playing the week before and experiencing links golf as much. So yeah, it's something that I was conscious about this year, and it was nice -- last year I did go to, the year before we played at St Andrews and I wanted to get there earlier. It's just purely been a decision because where we also are traveling to next week, it's also a little bit easier to get to. I don't think a lot of people know by my mom is from Scotland, she's from a place about 45 minutes or an hour north of Aberdeen. I don't know if any family will come down but I do have Scottish heritage. It is an important tournament to me this week. I've been fortunate to win my home open in Australia this year and come off a really successful year. To be able to win The Scottish Open would be big.”

Rolex Rankings No. 207 Gemma Dryburgh

Dryburgh on juggling motherhood and golf

“Yeah, it's obviously a different lifestyle now. It's not just myself to think about. He's almost seven months old. So obviously put another - something else to think about when I'm on tour, and just excited see him after I finish every day. It's been nice to come home and to not think about golf.”

Rolex Rankings No. 285 Georgia Hall

Hall on what she has been up to

“I gave birth to my son in February and then about six weeks after, I started picking up golf clubs. Now I'm here, it's my first kind of LPGA event back. I wanted to start in Scotland because it's like my favourite place ever, so I'm really happy to be here.”
