Extended forecast – Upper-level energy is forecast to move across the plains and into the region this weekend. This may bring the chance for a few showers late in the day Saturday. The higher likelihood for showers and isolated thunderstorms will be after midnight into Sunday morning as the upper-level energy approaches. Once this energy passes, only a slight chance for a shower or thunderstorm can be expected Sunday afternoon. Mainly a dry day can be expected Monday with only a slight chance for a pop-up thunderstorm. Temperatures will be warm with highs in the upper 80s.
